Seventeenth Sunday after Trinity Sunday 12th October 10am Sung Eucharist Rev'd Emma Durose

Collect:

Almighty God,
you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

A reading from the Second Book of Kings Naaman, commander of the army of the king of Aram, was a great man and in high favour with his master because by him the LORD had given victory to Aram. The man, though a mighty warrior, suffered from a skin disease.

Now the Arameans on one of their raids had taken a young girl captive from the land of Israel, and she served Naaman's wife. She said to her mistress, "If only my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! He would cure him of his skin disease."

When the king of Israel read the letter, he tore his clothes and said, "Am I God, to give death or life, that this man sends word to me to cure a man of his skin disease? Just look and see how he is trying to pick a quarrel with me."

But when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, he sent a message to the king, "Why have you torn your clothes? Let him come to me, that he may learn that there is a prophet in Israel."

So Naaman came with his horses and chariots and halted at the entrance of Elisha's house.

Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, "Go, wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall be restored, and you shall be clean."

But Naaman became angry and went away, saying, "I thought that for me he would surely come out and stand and call on the name of the LORD his God and would wave his hand over the spot and cure the skin disease!

Are not Abana and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? Could I not wash in them and be clean?" He turned and went away in a rage. But his servants approached and said to him, "Father, if the prophet had commanded you to do something difficult, would you not have done it? How much more, when all he said to you was, 'Wash, and be clean'?"

So he went down and immersed himself seven times in the Jordan, according to the word of the man of God; his flesh was restored like the flesh of a young boy, and he was clean.

Then he returned to the man of God, he and all his company; he came and stood before him and said, "Now I know that there is no God in all the earth except in Israel."

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy Remember Jesus Christ, raised from the dead, a descendant of David--that is my gospel, for which I suffer hardship, even to the point of being chained like a criminal. But the word of God is not chained.

Therefore I endure everything for the sake of the elect, so that they may also obtain the salvation that is in Christ Jesus, with eternal glory.

The saying is sure: If we have died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him; if we deny him, he will also deny us; if we are faithless, he remains faithful-- he cannot deny himself.

Remind them of this, and warn them before the Lord that they are to avoid wrangling over words, which does no good but only ruins those who are listening. Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved by him, a worker who has no need to be ashamed, rightly explaining the word of truth.

Gospel according to Luke

On the way to Jerusalem Jesus was going through the region between Samaria and Galilee.

As he entered a village, ten with a skin disease approached him. Keeping their distance, they called out, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"

When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." And as they went, they were made clean. Then one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, praising God with a loud voice.

He prostrated himself at Jesus's feet and thanked him. And he was a Samaritan. Then Jesus asked, "Were not ten made clean? So where are the other nine? Did none of them return to give glory to God except this foreigner?"

Then he said to him, "Get up and go on your way; your faith has made you well."

Post Communion Prayer:

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Weekly Prayer Intentions:

Mission and Ministry of this Parish:

For those living and working in Penryn and surrounding villages. For the parish of St. Gluvias and a growth in our congregation.

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world. For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer:

READER'S SERVICE (11TH OCT)

Gracious and faithful God, we give you thanks for the calling you place upon your people, and for the many gifts you pour out for the building up of your Church. In our annual service we rejoice in the ministry of Readers for their faithfulness in proclaiming your Word, leading your people in worship, and serving in love in the places you have set them. We thank you for those newly licensed this year - fill them with the joy of the Gospel, the courage of the Spirit, and the wisdom to walk closely with Christ in all they do. Through Jesus Christ our Lord, who calls, equips, and sends us in the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Prayer by Jim Seth, Chaplain to the Readers

Prayers for 17th Sunday after Trinity (Proper 23)

Let us pray for the healing grace of God in the Church and in the world.

Keep your Church in the right way, to work for you without doubts or fears...In your mercy grant that we shall never deny our Saviour but be bold to speak the words that he has taught us.

Come with your healing power to cleanse the world of prejudice against race and belief...Inspire those who can relieve human need with the compassion that was in Jesus.

Give to us, our families, friends and neighbours, the spirit of gratitude for all the benefits we have received...Bless those in our community who work for healing.

Have mercy on the sick. Especially those who have long been ill and found no relief...Give them courage and perseverance and bring them new hope. We pray especially for...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Roderick Dare, Jackie Dare, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock and young Lilly.

We pray for the departed, having shared bodily death with Christ, may share his resurrection...May they rest in peace and rise in glory; especially...

Irene Booth, Christine Wenmoth (12th), Thomas Bailey, Edwin Harry Shore Pr. (13th), Douglas Thomas (16th), Norman Dash, Charles Dunbar (17th), Ellen Rundle, Mark Hammond (18th).

We offer these prayers through Christ, that we may be always thankful for his mercy to us. Amen.
