Operation Christmas Child 2025. Shoeboxes for packing, ready to send to children around the world, with Christmas gifts and a message of love, are now available. Many of you support this every year and know the routine well. Help yourself to a box and this year “How to pack a shoebox” leaflet . If you have never been involved before and would like to know more about it, please see Viv Merrick or Cathy Trevor. It brings such joy to many children and is lovely to take part in. Filled boxes can be returned to church as soon as they are done but must be back by 9th November (If you take a box and then are unable to fill it for any reason, please still return the box as we do have to purchase them).

Preparing for Baptism and Confirmation. Six sessions exploring the Christian Faith. Begins 14th October 25, meeting at the Vicarage. For more information speak to Revd Richard

AUTUMN PRAYER STATION

In the Prayer Corner we now have a new prayer focus on Thanksgiving.

Please take an Autumn leaf and write something you want to thank God for on it and then hang the leaf onto the Prayer Tree.

We are looking for volunteers for Place of Welcome, if this is you, please speak to Maria or Gill Brackett for more information.

The prayer lists on Jottings and in the prayer diary will be revised soon. If you want someone to stay on the prayer diary, please tick their name on the list at the back of church. Names that have been in Jottings for a long time will be move to the prayer diary.

Join us for Remembrance Special at Place of Welcome

On Saturday 8th November (10:30-12:30pm)

Highlights of the day: War graves tour, Poppy Crafts. Prayer Area and Large Poppy Display.

Please note there are only 15 places available for War Graves tour, which starts at 10:30am. We recommend wearing suitable footwear as the tour may involve walking on uneven or grassy ground.

WEDDING DONATIONS

To all those who kindly donated money to the Church, in lieu of gifts, on the occasion of our wedding, a BIG THANK YOU. The amount raised was £1,167.

With our love and gratitude from Barb & Nigel.
