

Psalm 91; 1 to 6, 14 to end

Please stand, if able, and join in the verses in bold

By the rivers of Babylon we sat and wept
when we remembered Zion.

There on the poplars
we hung our harps,

for there our captors asked us for songs,
our tormentors demanded songs of joy;
they said, "Sing us one of the songs of Zion!"

How can we sing the songs of the LORD
while in a foreign land?

If I forget you, Jerusalem,
may my right hand forget its skill.

May my tongue cling to the roof of my mouth
if I do not remember you,
if I do not consider Jerusalem my highest joy.

Remember, LORD, what the Edomites did
on the day Jerusalem fell.
"Tear it down," they cried, "tear it down to its foundations!"

Daughter Babylon, doomed to destruction,
happy is the one who repays you
according to what you have done to us.

Happy is the one who seizes your infants and dashes them against the rocks.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit, as it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen

Distribution of Communion –currently the Priest will still dip the communion wafer in the wine while we discern a safe way to bring the common cup back into worship, as we want everyone to feel included and safe. Don't forget we have gluten free wafers available too.

Just a reminder you can find out more that is happening and get in touch via our website
