Fourteenth Sunday after Trinity

Sunday 21st September 2025

10am Sung Eucharist

Rev'd Ben Hudd

Collect:

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Amen

First Reading: A reading from the Prophet Amos Hear this, you who trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying,

"When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain, and the Sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale?

We will make the ephah smaller and the shekel heavier and practice deceit with false balances, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals and selling the sweepings of the wheat."

The LORD has sworn by the pride of Jacob: Surely I will never forget any of their deeds.

Second Reading: A reading from the first letter to Timothy

First of all, then, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity.

This is right and acceptable before God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth.

For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and humankind, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all--this was attested at the right time.

For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle (I am telling the truth; I am not lying), a teacher of the gentiles in faith and truth.

Gospel: Luke

Then Jesus said to the disciples, "There was a rich man who had a manager, and charges were brought to him that this man was squandering his property.

So he summoned him and said to him,
'What is this that I hear about you?
Give me an accounting of your management because you cannot be my manager any longer.'

Then the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the position away from me? I am not strong enough to dig, and I am ashamed to beg. I have decided what to do so that, when I am dismissed as manager, people may welcome me into their homes.'

So, summoning his master's debtors one by one, he asked the first, 'How much do you owe my master?' He answered, 'A hundred jugs of olive oil.' He said to him, 'Take your bill, sit down quickly, and make it fifty.'

Then he asked another, 'And how much do you owe?' He replied, 'A hundred containers of wheat.' He said to him, 'Take your bill and make it eighty.' And his master commended the dishonest manager because he had acted shrewdly, for the children of this age are more shrewd in dealing with their own generation than are the children of light.

And I tell you, make friends for yourselves by means of dishonest wealth so that when it is gone they may welcome you into the eternal homes. "Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much, and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. ➔

If, then, you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches?

And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own?

No slave can serve two masters, for a slave will either hate the one and love the other or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth.

Post Communion Prayer:

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

For the homeless in our parish and throughout the country. For those that rely on the support of the Foodbank.

For the World:

We pray for victims of terrorism the world over; for all affected by atrocities around the world and for persecuted Christians.

We pray for the people of Ukraine and the people of Russia; for their countries and their leaders.

We call upon you to show mercy to the people Israel and Palestine and protect them.

We pray for leaders on the world stage; that they are inspired by the wisdom and courage of Christ.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: INTERNATIONAL DAY OF PEACE

Lead me from Death to Life, from Falsehood to Truth.

Lead me from Despair to Hope, from Fear to Trust.

Lead me from Hate to Love, from War to Peace.

Let Peace fill our Heart, our World, our Universe.

Peace Peace Peace

Mother Teresa of Calcutta commended this prayer to be said by everyone - of whatever faith or none - at 12 noon every day.

Anglican Communion:

14th Sunday after Trinity - Season of Creation - Province of the Episcopal Church of South Sudan

Prayers for the 12th Sunday after Trinity The Holy wisdom of the Church and in the world, let us pray to the Lord.

Keep the whole Church steadfast in faith, ready to bear the cost of discipleship...May all Christian people honour one another in love, and give thanks for their redemption.

Look with compassion on the world where many strive to fulfil tasks that are too heavy for them...Give wisdom to those who have power in disputes between nations, that they may count the cost of conflict before it is too late.

We pray that our human loves and loyalties may be blessed but never turn us from our spiritual duty...Make us considerate to all who serve our daily needs.

We pray for those who suffer in mind, body or spirit, especially...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Roderick Dare, Jackie Dare, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock and young Lilly.

Have mercy on those who are distressed because they wrongly judged the consequences of what they desired to do...We pray for all who have fled from their homes, that they may find support and the way of reconciliation.

We remember the souls of the faithful departed, especially...

Peter Binkley (21st), Constance Webber (22nd), Clara Rundle, Emily Wills (23rd), Joe Marment, Rosi Byess-Hopper (24th), Sylvia Chinn (26th), Hubert Winnett (27th).

We give thanks for those who have fulfilled their work on earth and entered into rest...Grant them eternal life through the Cross that was borne for them.

We make our prayers through Christ who has called us to take up the cross and follow him. Amen

Message for members of the Parish Giving Scheme

The Parish Giving Scheme website will be taken offline from 3pm Monday 13 October until a new system launches on Thursday 30 October.

During this time, the PGS will be unable to register or amend regular or one-off gifts by any means. You will each be hearing direct from the PGS during this coming week about this.
