Foodbank

Can you put food on the table this harvest? As harvest is a time for sharing, we're asking you to consider supporting Foodbank by leaving your donations of food in our churches. These will go to those in our communities who are facing hunger. For more details see the posters in our churches. Together we can make sure no one locally goes hungry this Harvest or in the cold months to come.

We remember all those who need our prayers...

We pray for...

Our Diocesan and Deanery Ministry Teams: Bishop David, Bishop Hugh, Archdeacon Clive and Revd. Helen Baber.

The Newquay Area Debt Centre and its Manager Bekah.

Our Worship Team: Helen (Rector); David (Curate); Lydia and Phil (Lay Readers); Alison, Andrew, Angela, Bryan and Mary (Assistant Priests); Kat, Jackie, Margaret and Ros (Worship Leaders).

Our Benefice and Churchwardens: as we work together with our Deanery and across our Diocese.

We welcome into God's family Tristan Arthur Massie whose baptism takes place at St Columb Church today.

We also remember those who are bereaved at this time, thinking of the family and friends of David Crewes and Geoff Hawkey.

Years mind: Dorothy Simons.

If you know of anyone needing prayer or pastoral care, please phone the Benefice Office on 01637 880252 or email lannpydar@gmail.com Please send any information for the Welcome from your parishes by 9:00am on Tuesday.

Archbishop of Canterbury

The King has approved the nomination of The Right Reverend and Right Honourable Dame Sarah Mullally D.B.E. for election as Archbishop of Canterbury. Congratulations! Bishop Sarah has asked us to keep her in our prayers, just as she will keep us in her prayers.

Drop In Surgery

There will be a Drop In Surgery at 10:00am on Monday 13th October at M&S Kingsley Village. Why not pop in for a chat and a coffee?

Bishop David

Bishop David will be in Pydar Deanery on Sunday 19th October. We will be welcoming him to our Morning Worship service at 11:00am at St Mawgan on that date. Come along to hear him preach and wrap up warm (as the new heating system is being installed).

Just Be

Thursday 23rd October at 2:00pm in the Vyvyan Room at the Columba Centre. Come along for tea, coffee and cake, bring a craft if you would like to, and just be.

St Mawgan Churchyard Working Party

Come along and help garden or provide drinks in the churchyard at St Mawgan on Saturday 25th October from 10:00am to 12:00noon. Bring gardening gloves.

St Ervan Coffee Morning

There will be a Coffee Morning at St Ervan Village Hall from 10:30am on Saturday 25th October. Come along for a coffee and a chat.

Rise Up!

A family friendly Sunday service on Sunday 26th October at 9:30am at St Columb Church. Spread the word! Who could you bring along? We meet to pray for this initiative every Monday from 1:30pm in the Lady Chapel of St Columb Church, 'be great to see you.

Rosemary Service of Remembrance

The Benefice of Lann Pydar invites you to a Rosemary Service on Tuesday 28th October at 7.00pm at St Columb Church. All are welcome to come to this special service.

"There's rosemary; that's for remembrance. Pray, love, remember."

We pray that this service will help you in thanking God for your loved ones, and for those whom life has been difficult, bring comfort in your grief. Sprigs of rosemary will be given as remembrances of those loved ones who are missed.

Retirement

Helen and the Benefice of Lann Pydar wholeheartedly thank Denise Tremain for all her administrative and marketing support. She has played a key role in bringing this Benefice to where it is today. Denise has decided to lay down her laptop as one of our administrators, but will still be a valued volunteer in the Benefice.

Safeguarding

The Benefice of Lann Pydar takes the safeguarding of those who attend and visit our churches seriously. If you have any concerns or would like to talk to someone, please see our posters in all our churches for contact details, or contact Helen, the Rector, or Jackie Oglethorpe (07811 958851, jackie.oglethorpe@gmail.com), the Benefice Safeguarding Officer.

Next week's Readings

Genesis 32:22-31, Psalm 121,
2 Timothy 3:14-4:5 and Luke 18:1-8

Old Testament: Deuteronomy 26:1–11

When you have come into the land that the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance to possess, and you possess it, and settle in it, you shall take some of the first of all the fruit of the ground, which you harvest from the land that the Lord your God is giving you, and you shall put it in a basket and go to the place that the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his name. You shall go to the priest who is in office at that time, and say to him, 'Today I declare to the Lord your God that I have come into the land that the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us.' When the priest takes the basket from your hand and sets it down before the altar of the Lord your God, you shall make this response before the Lord your God: 'A wandering Aramean was my ancestor; he went down into Egypt and lived there as an alien, few in number, and there he became a great nation, mighty and populous. When the Egyptians treated us harshly and afflicted us, by imposing hard labour on us, we cried to the Lord, the God of our ancestors; the Lord heard our voice and saw our affliction, our toil, and our oppression. The Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with a terrifying display of power, and with signs and wonders; and he brought us into this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey. So now I bring the first of the fruit of the ground that you, O Lord, have given me.' You shall set it down before the Lord your God and bow down before the Lord your God. Then you, together with the Levites and the aliens who reside among you, shall celebrate with all the bounty that the Lord your God has given to you and to your house.

Psalm: Psalm 100

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.

Worship the Lord with gladness;
come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God.

It is he that made us, and we are his;

we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving,
and his courts with praise.

Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good;

his steadfast love endures for ever,

and his faithfulness to all generations.

New Testament Reading: Philippians 4:4–9

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I will say, Rejoice. Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. Do not worry about anything, but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Finally, beloved, whatever is true, whatever is honourable, whatever is just, whatever is pure, whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable, if there is any excellence and if there is anything worthy of praise, think about these things. Keep on doing the things that you have learned and received and heard and seen in me, and the God of peace will be with you.

Gospel Reading: John 6:25–35

When they found him on the other side of the lake, they said to him, 'Rabbi, when did you come here?' Jesus answered them, 'Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal.' Then they said to him, 'What must we do to perform the works of God?' Jesus answered them, 'This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent.' So they said to him, 'What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, "He gave them bread from heaven to eat."'" Then Jesus said to them, 'Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.' They said to him, 'Sir, give us this bread always.'

Jesus said to them, 'I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty.

Collect

Creator God,

you made the goodness of the land,
the riches of the sea and the rhythm of the seasons;
as we thank you for the harvest
may we cherish and respect this planet and its peoples,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer Response

Have pity on us Lord:

you alone can save us.

and at the end...

Merciful Father, accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and the wine of the kingdom:
by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
