A message from Philip

CHRISTMAS HOPE

Jesus spent most of his life in Nazareth. In the year of his birth there was a Roman massacre in Sepphoris. That was about as far from Nazareth as Sutton is from Forest Town. As well as huge loss of life there was widespread cruelty by the rampaging army of occupation. Jesus was born into a situation where there was little or no hope. When older he was possibly a carpenter but he could have been a manual labourer. The Biblical word used to describe his work has a wide ranging variety of translations. In the last 10% or so of his earthly life Jesus needed financial support and sometimes slept rough. He was tortured to death in the worst way the Romans knew. Now he lives in eternity. Despite all this Jesus kept praying to and obeying his heavenly Father even on the cross. He offers to all people eternal life, infinite love and the brightest possible inner light. When we get to know him we have it all.

EXTRA OPENING OF CHURCH

On 4 occasions in December the church will be open for quiet prayer and reflection. These dates are 2nd and 8th at 9.15am and 3rd and 9th at 7pm. There will be some music playing and the chance for people to be still, pray and reflect. This is particularly aimed at those for whom this time of year is especially testing. Obviously anyone who wants a bit of space will be equally welcome.
