

The background of the entire poster is a night sky with a deep purple and blue gradient. A bright, multi-pointed star or comet is positioned in the upper center, with several beams of light shining down from it. In the lower-left foreground, there are dark silhouettes of two figures, likely shepherds, and a group of sheep. One figure holds a staff. To the left of the figures is the silhouette of a large tree. The overall scene is peaceful and evokes the Christmas story.
