Bored with your Board Games?

As part of Churches Together, in January, we will be launching a new 'Language Café' on Thursday evenings at Living Water Coffee Shop. The aim of this new gathering is to offer free language classes to those for whom English is not their first language, whilst also providing a safe social space for fellowship and friendship. As part of the social time, we are hoping to offer some simple board games. If you have any games which do not rely heavily on language e.g. chess, backgammon, playing cards, Ludo, Connect 4 etc., that you would like to donate, please have a word with Ros. Many thanks.
