PRAYERS AND READINGS

Collect Prayer

Almighty Father, whose will is to restore all things in your beloved Son, the King of all: govern the hearts and minds of those in authority, and bring the families of the nations, divided and torn apart by the ravages of sin, to be subject to his just and gentle rule; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Old Testament Reading: Job 19.23–27a

²³ 'O that my words were written down! O that they were inscribed in a book! ²⁴ O that with an iron pen and with lead they were engraved on a rock for ever! ²⁵ For I know that my Redeemer lives, and that at the last he will stand upon the earth; ²⁶ and after my skin has been thus destroyed, then in my flesh I shall see God, ²⁷ whom I shall see on my side, and my eyes shall behold, and not another. My heart faints within me!

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Psalm 17.1–9

- ¹ Hear my just cause, O Lord; consider my complaint; listen to my prayer, which comes not from lying lips.
- ² Let my vindication come forth from your presence; let your eyes behold what is right.
- ³ Weigh my heart, examine me by night, refine me, and you will find no impurity in me.
- ⁴ My mouth does not trespass for earthly rewards; I have heeded the words of your lips.
- ⁵ My footsteps hold fast in the ways of your commandments; my feet have not stumbled in your paths.
- ⁶ I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; incline your ear to me, and listen to my words.
- ⁷ Show me your marvellous loving-kindness, O Saviour of those who take refuge at your right hand from those who rise up against them.
- ⁸ Keep me as the apple of your eye; hide me under the shadow of your wings,
- ⁹ From the wicked who assault me, from my enemies who surround me to take away my life.

New Testament Reading: 2 Thessalonians 2.1–5, 13–end

²As to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we beg you, brothers and sisters, ²not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as though from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord is already here. ³Let no one deceive you in any way; for that day will not come unless the rebellion comes first and the lawless one is revealed, the one destined for destruction. ⁴He opposes and exalts himself above every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, declaring himself to be God. ⁵Do you not remember that I told you these things when I was still with you?

¹³But we must always give thanks to God for you, brothers and sisters beloved by the Lord, because God chose you as the first fruits for salvation through sanctification by the Spirit and through belief in the truth. ¹⁴For this purpose he called you through our proclamation of the good news, so that you may obtain the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter. ¹⁶Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, ¹⁷comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading: Luke 20.27-38

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

²⁷Some Sadducees, those who say there is no resurrection, came to him ²⁸and asked him a question, 'Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies, leaving a wife but no children, the man shall marry the widow and raise up children for his brother. ²⁹Now there were seven brothers; the first married, and died childless; ³⁰then the second ³¹and the third married her, and so in the same way all seven died childless. ³²Finally the woman also died. ³³In the resurrection, therefore, whose wife will the woman be? For the seven had married her.' ³⁴Jesus said to them, 'Those who belong to this age marry and are given in marriage; ³⁵but those who are considered worthy of a place in that age and in the resurrection from the dead neither marry nor are given in marriage. ³⁶Indeed they cannot die any more, because they are like angels and are children of God, being children of the resurrection. ³⁷And the fact that the dead are raised Moses himself showed, in the story about the bush, where he speaks of the Lord as the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. ³⁸Now he is God not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all of them are alive.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.
