

First Reading at Service
Reading from the New Testament
Romans 8: verses 31 to 39

What, then, shall we say in response to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all—how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things? Who will bring any charge against those whom God has chosen? It is God who justifies. Who then is the one who condemns? No one. Christ Jesus who died—more than that, who was raised to life—is at the right hand of God and is also interceding for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Shall trouble or hardship or persecution or famine or nakedness or danger or sword? As it is written: “For your sake we face death all day long; we are considered as sheep to be slaughtered.”

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Second Reading at Service
Gospel Reading

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

All: Glory to you O Lord

John 6: verses 35 to 39

Then Jesus declared, “I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never go hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty. But as I told you, you have seen me and still you do not believe. All those the Father gives me will come to me, and whoever comes to me I will never drive away. For I have come down from heaven not to do my will but to do the will of him who sent me. And this is the will of him who sent me, that I shall lose none of all those he has given me, but raise them up at the last day.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ

Here is this week's GREEN TIP!

DITCH SHOWER GEL FOR GOOD OLD FASHIONED SOAP!

Swapping shower gel for soap when bathing has several advantages. Soap is cheaper, it lasts longer, it smells wonderful and also reduces plastic waste.
