Breath of the Four Winds

Come from the four winds, O Breath, And breathe upon these slain, that they may live. (Ezekiel 37:9)

Come from the South, O Breath, blow your life-giving promise of hope to our sisters in ponchos, Mothers of the Disappeared, political prisoners and exiles.

Come from the South and breathe
justice that they may live.

Come from the North, O Breath, blow your Word, in Spirit and truth,
to our brothers and sisters who have lost their languages in residential schools.
Come from the North and speak freely,
so there may be healing.

Come from the East, O Breath, blow your message of peace
to children in countries shattered by war and division.

Come from the East with morning's promise of a new day.

Come from the West, O Breath, blow in the tongues of fire in the sky at the setting of the sun.

We are your church, kindled in your Spirit, fired in the mystery of your coming.

Come from the West and pray in us, Holy Spirit, our ending and our beginning.

(Wendy MacLean, United Church of Canada)

All Saints' Day Prayer

Almighty God,
Today, we honor the saints who walked faithfully before us.
May their example inspire us to live with courage, love, and grace.
Grant us strength to follow in their footsteps, so that we too may grow in holiness and share in Your eternal joy.
Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
