WEEKLY REFLECTION

ARE YOU SEARCHING FOR MEANING?

'I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless.'

Ecclesiastes 1:14 NIV.

Are you thinking that if you had more money or greater success, you would be happy? Tennis star Boris Becker said: 'I had won Wimbledon twice before, once as the youngest player. I was rich. I had all the material possessions I needed. It's the old song of movie stars and pop stars who commit suicide. They have everything, and yet they are so unhappy. I had no inner peace.' Solomon made the same discovery. 'I have seen all the things that are done under the sun; all of them are meaningless, a chasing after the wind.' Solomon tried religion, education, money, public works projects, fame, creative writing, and sensual pleasure: 'I denied myself nothing my eyes desired; I refused my heart no pleasure. My heart took delight in all my labour... Yet when I surveyed all that my hands had done and what I had toiled to achieve, everything was meaningless' (Ecclesiastes 2:10-11 NIVUK).

Finally, in the last chapter of the book of Ecclesiastes, Solomon finds what he is looking for: 'Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the duty of all mankind' (Ecclesiastes 12:13 NIV). Solomon discovered that life is not built on things but on relationships. And the first and foremost relationship you must have is a relationship with God. You say, 'How do I find God?' Through Christ! Jesus said, 'I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me' (John 14:6 NKJV). Today, you can have a life-changing relationship with God by putting your trust in Jesus Christ.

Pray: Holy Spirit I welcome you; there is room in my heart for you.
