Remembrance Sunday

Thank you to everyone who contributed to Remembrance Sunday services and Armistice Day services and who decorated our churches and churchyards. Over 370 people and 80 children (including 60 from uniformed organisations) attended across the five services on Sunday and Tuesday, with a further 110 children for the two school services. We thank Fladbury Brownies for their display of doves of peace. Do visit our churches and look at the remarkable displays, wreaths and images, and spare a minute to ponder.
