Advance Notices:

Pilgrimage Walks – we shall be trying this as a new venture.

Journeys take us somewhere, maybe to school, work, home or even on holiday. Journeys are often frantic and fast paced fuelled by the desire to get somewhere... quickly! Life is full of journeys where the destination is the point. A pilgrimage is different because the journey is the point.

A pilgrimage isn't fast paced. It is fuelled by prayer and reflection and takes us to a place of greater understanding of ourselves, how we connect with people, places and with God. So why not come and join us on Saturday 13th Dec at 10am? We'll meet outside Dikes and will finish there for a cup of tea an hour or so later.

~~~~~

There are still a few places left to join the Benefice Reread to Hillfield Friary for two nights from 28th to 30th April. The cost will be around £130. Please see Helen
