We thank God for the forerunner, John the Baptist.

 that global decision makers and we ourselves take action to preserve the integrity of God's creation;
 for those scarred and held back by poverty;
 for those who sleep rough or have no home;
 for the work of the Children's Society;
 for those who serve in parliament – for wisdom and humility;.
 for the work of local social services supporting the vulnerable and needy;
 The Sick: from our community –Michael (Red) Redman, Claire Clement, John Horne, Jean Winter, Philip Stott, Thomas Hole, Iris Rowlett and others for whom we have been asked to pray - Jamie Trotham, Anne Dyer, Ruth Dyer, and Elizabeth Nicholls.

COLLECT

God for whom we watch and wait, you sent John the Baptist to prepare the way of your Son:
give us courage to speak the truth,
to hunger for justice,
and to suffer for the cause of right,
with Jesus Christ our Lord.

OLD TESTAMENT

ISAIAH 35.1-10

The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad, the desert shall rejoice and blossom; like the crocus it shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice with joy and singing.

The glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the majesty of Carmel and Sharon.

They shall see the glory of the Lord,
the majesty of our God.

Strengthen the weak hands, and make firm the feeble knees. Say to those who are of a fearful heart, 'Be strong, do not fear! Here is your God. He will come with vengeance, with terrible recompense. He will come and save you.' Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped; then the lame shall leap like a deer, and the tongue of the speechless sing for joy.

For waters shall break forth in the wilderness, and streams in the desert;
the burning sand shall become a pool and the thirsty ground springs of water; the haunt of jackals shall become a swamp, the grass shall become reeds and rushes. A highway shall be there, and it shall be called the Holy Way; the unclean shall not travel on it, but it shall be for God's people; no traveller, not even fools, shall go astray. No lion shall be there nor shall any ravenous beast come up on it they shall not be found there,

but the redeemed shall walk there.
And the ransomed of the Lord shall return, and come to Zion with singing; everlasting joy shall be upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.

PSALM 146.4-10

4 Happy are those who have the God of Jacob for their help, • whose hope is in the Lord their God;

5 Who made heaven and earth,
the sea and all that is in them; •
who keeps his promise for ever;

6 Who gives justice to those that suffer wrong •

and bread to those who hunger.
7 The Lord looses those that are bound; •

the Lord opens the eyes of the blind;

8 The Lord lifts up those who are
bowed down; •

the Lord loves the righteous;

9 The Lord watches over the stranger
in the land;

he upholds the orphan and widow;
•

but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.

10 The Lord shall reign for ever, • your God, O Zion, throughout all generations.

Alleluia

EPISTLE

JAMES 5.7-10

Be patient, therefore, beloved, until the coming of the Lord. The farmer waits for the precious crop from the earth, being patient with it until it receives the early and the late rains. You also must be patient. Strengthen your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is near. Beloved, do not grumble against one another, so that you may not be judged. See, the Judge is standing at the doors! As an example of suffering and patience, beloved, take the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.

GOSPEL

MATTHEW 11.2-11

When John heard in prison what the Messiah was doing, he sent word by his disciples and said to him, 'Are you the one who is to come, or are we to wait for another?' Jesus answered them, 'Go and tell John what you hear and see: the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and the poor have good news brought to them. And blessed is anyone who takes no offence at me.' As they went away, Jesus began to speak to the crowds about John: 'What did you go out into the wilderness to look at? A reed shaken by the wind? What then did you go out to see? Someone dressed in soft robes? Look, those who wear soft robes are in royal palaces. What then did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and more than a prophet. This is the one about whom it is written,

"See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way before you."

Truly I tell you, among those born of women no one has arisen greater than John the Baptist; yet the least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he.

POST COMMUNION

We give you thanks, O Lord, for these heavenly gifts;
kindle in us the fire of your Spirit

we may shine as lights before his face;
who is alive and reigns now and for ever.
