About St. Aidan's Church

Serving the Parish of St Aidan Sudden Rochdale and All Souls Heywood, St Aidan's Church sits on a high piece of land above the junction of Manchester Road and Bolton Road.

The church, a Grade II* listed building, is a fine example of the work of architect Temple Moore. A collection of archival material is maintained, including information about persons commemorated on the church war memorial. The church interior was refurbished in 2020. A spacious church hall adjoins the church.

The church contains a notable Father Willis organ and is well known for its choir and musical tradition.

The church members work hard to maintain the building as a worthy place of worship where people can seek a caring fellowship and spiritual growth and where baptisms, Weddings and Funerals can be celebrated with joy and dignity.

The church exists to serve the local community with a range of services and activities in the church and hall.

The true heart of St Aidan's Church lies not in the building but in its members and newcomers are warmly welcomed into the church family.
