Reflection by Revd Charlie

God is love.

This message is central to our understanding of God, the Trinity, creation, scripture, in fact his full revelation. We need to hold this truth before us in all things. It is the lens through which we interpret the Bible, and is the guide by which we live. To use theological language it is the hermeneutic through which we understand all things. (Which is a fancy word which basically means interpretation).

The love of God for each and every one of us is the reason for the season we are celebrating; Christmas, when the creator of the universe came to live among us, taking on the frail form of a human baby, and becoming fully one of us. It is the reason for all the seasons in the liturgical year, most notably of course Easter, when Christ died on the cross for us, and was then gloriously raised again, opening the path for us too to be raised to eternal life.

Love is at the heart of all of this, because God is love. Love is his very identity, at the heart of all He is. However, I read a reflection recently that made the distinction that God is love, love is not God. The purpose of the distinction being made was to remind us that God defines love rather than love defining

God. It is an interesting distinction, and caused me to reflect on the ways in which we may be guilty of understanding God from a false perspective if we start from our flawed perception of love and reflect that back onto God. We do not love with the perfection of God. What we feel and experience is but a shadow of the love of God. God loves more perfectly than any human being. Perhaps the most pure form of love we experience is the love of a parent for their newborn child. I know I need to be careful in saying that, because sadly that is not universal, but the greatest love that any parent on earth has felt for their newborn child is not as great as the love God has for us. We must not use our flawed human experiences of the emotion of love to define our understanding of God. It is the other way round. We should use our understanding of God to define love. We should read our scriptures, to understand God as he has revealed himself throughout them, and ultimately in the person of Jesus Christ, to ultimately understand what love really is. It is not about giving us everything we want. It is not about satisfying our every desire. But it is about giving us everything we really, truly need.

God is love, and he loves you with a perfect love. He sent his son to live and die for you. Nothing you can do can separate you from that love. He knows you are not perfect. He knows you better than you know yourself. And he loves you, with a perfect love. I pray you will know that truth in your heart this Christmas.

CHURCH NEWS

PRAYER DIARY

St Mary Greenhithe has had a prayer diary produced every month by one of their members. This has daily entries, with reminders to pray about various church activities and our community. Over the past 6 months this has included St Peter and St Paul's activities as well, so we have decided to go the whole hog and make it a joint prayer diary for both churches.

Please find the December Prayer Diary

There is also the option to receive each daily entry by email, which arrives about 5.30am, so is available for you to read whenever your normal prayer time is. If you would like to receive this daily email you can subscribe through the button below:)

St Peter and St Paul's needs repair to its roof, masonry, windows and rainwater goods. The cost of the project is over £125,000. We have already secured £100,000 through fundraising and grants.

Can you help us raise the extra £25,000?

Swanscombe's
Heritage

St Peter & St Paul's is a grade 1 listed church with parts of the building dating back to the Saxon & Norman periods with much of the rest of the building being built during the twelfth and thirteenth centuries.

Whilst the church has stood for over 1000 years, the cost of maintaining this beautiful ancient building is enormous and an ongoing responsibility. If we are to preserve the building for future generations of

Swanscombe residents,
WE WILL NEED YOUR HELP!

Friends of St Peter & St Paul's

COMMUNITY INFORMATION

Do you have time on your hands and the ability to knit? Would you like to knit these special therapy toys for young children?

A worry monster is designed to discuss and reduce worries. Children write or draw their worry onto a piece of paper and then feed it to their worry monster. Once the monster has eaten it, the worry can then be discussed and shared with an adult. There are also self image monsters to help children work through these issues.

We are calling on all knitters to get involved in knitting these for donation to Walk Tall's Children's Therapy. Ann Duke, CEO of Walk Tall, says 'Our child-specialist psychotherapists use them. Each child is given their own Worry

Monster. It then becomes the child's friend and, as part of the therapeutic process, gobbles up all their worries. We have so many little Twinkles (from 3 years old upwards!!) who are in therapy because of the trauma/abuse/neglect they've suffered. The Worry Monsters are SO useful in externalising internal states.'

If you would like to knit these for donation to Walk Tall Children's Therapy, then the patterns are on our Church Website under News and Events. Or why not come along to St Peter and St Paul's Knit and Natter group on the first Tuesday of every month, from 2pm-4pm. Wool can be supplied. Please contact Revd Charlie if you would like more information.
