Revealing the hidden

ISAIAH 49.1-7

In this second 'servant song', we hear how God's servant was chosen by God before birth, then hidden and prepared for the special mission of not only restoring God's people but also being a light to all nations.

As we reflect on the readings and theme, we also reflect on our own lives. What might be currently hidden, and what is ready to be revealed so that people can see more of who God is?

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity - 18th to 25th January

This year the prayers and reflections are from the Armenian Apostolic Church, along with the Armenian Catholic and Evangelical Churches.

These resources draw upon centuries-old traditions of prayer and petitions used by the Armenian people, along with hymns that originated in the ancient monasteries and churches of Armenia, some of which date as far back as the fourth century.

They extend an invitation to draw upon this shared Christian heritage and to delve more deeply into our fellowship in Christ, which unites Christians worldwide.

Government urged to keep VAT grants for repairs

The Chancellor has been urged to retain a tax scheme for listed places of worship, as a survey, recently published, showed the majority of the UK population backs government support to help churches pay for repairs to their buildings.

A poll shows that two in five people, or 43 per cent of all adults, report having had contact with their local church. The majority of these, or 53 per cent, was for services and worship, but also 23 per cent – nearly seven million people in the UK – had contact for community support such as parent toddler groups, lunch clubs and food banks.

An estimated 2.8 million people – or four per cent of the UK population – have been in contact with their local church for a food bank. Church of England churches run or support 31,300 social action projects, including nearly 8,000 food banks, with emergency food provision and community cafés on the rise.

More than three quarters of the population – 77 per cent – said historic cathedrals and churches are local and national treasures. And two in five – 41% – said they had visited a church or cathedral simply to find a quiet space for reflection or prayer, with this figure rising to 50 per cent amongst young adults in the 18 to 34 age range.

The survey conducted for the Church of England by Savanta, shows 59 per cent of the UK population agree that the Government should help with the costs of repairing and maintaining historic churches.

The Listed Places of Worship Grant scheme was first put in place by the then Chancellor Gordon Brown in 2001 and allows for VAT grants on repairs of more than £1,000 to be claimed for essential repairs and maintenance.

The future of the scheme is in doubt after the Department of Culture, Media & Sport (DCMS) announced an interim arrangement earlier this year with a reduction in the amount of money available from £42 million a year to £23 million and a cap of £25,000 per building. The scheme is due to come to an end in March next year and there has been no confirmation from the Government on whether it will be renewed.

The Church of England is responsible for 45 per cent of the UK's Grade 1 listed buildings. More than 12,500 of its church buildings have listed status.

Current estimates show that around 260 churches and cathedrals have reported that their essential repair projects are at risk because of uncertainty over the scheme's future and big increases in costs as a result of the £25,000 limit on claims.

The DCMS Commons select committee called in July for the scheme to be made permanent and the cap on claims to be lifted, after hearing evidence from the Church of England as part of its inquiry into built heritage.

Stop using aluminium foil for cooking wherever possible; use a container with a lid that can be reused. Aluminium is a rare metal and its extraction and purification uses a lot of energy.

‘He gave us eyes to see them’ - The Church Door - St John’s Adel

Have you ever thought how an actual church building might provide a series of visual aids to spiritual meditation? The Revd Michael Burgess begins at the Church Door....

George Herbert is a much-loved Anglican poet, who died just 40 years old in 1633. His volume of poems ‘The Temple’ was published later that year. In it the poet leads the reader through the church door into the building to meditate on all that is seen inside.

That procession through the church is the theme of our monthly articles this year. We shall visit a variety of English churches as we make our way from the font to the altar.

We begin this month outside the glorious Norman building of St John’s Church, Adel, near Leeds in West Yorkshire.

The church has a very fine south doorway with ornate carving. The oak door is a Victorian copy of the original door; the Sanctuary Ring is a replica of the Norman ring/knocker. It shows a monster about to swallow a man, but open the door and there is safety and protection away from the harms of the world. It is the theme in St John’s Gospel of Jesus as the door to the sheepfold. Enter through Jesus, we are told, to find the safety of the flock, and also to find nourishment and renewal. We can stand at the door of this beautiful church or at the door of our own churches. It opens and welcomes us to enjoy the friendship and refreshment within.

The door could stay closed, protecting us from the storms of life without that threaten us like the dark creature in the Norman sanctuary ring of Adel church. But we know that in the church building we have no abiding city. Our worship ends and the door will open once again to lead us out into that world. Within we have found nourishment in the sacrament of the altar, in the word of scripture, and in the fellowship of the flock. We go out to share those gifts with the world that others may come to know Jesus as the door that leads to life eternal.

Church Flowers

If you have ever wondered how our flower rota works, it is actually very simple. The flowers in church each Sunday are given as a gift – an offering from members of the congregation.

A flower rota is displayed on the noticeboard in the Community Room, showing all the Sundays of the year. You are welcome to add your name at any time.

Flowers may be placed in church in memory of loved ones, to mark personal celebrations, or for church festivals and special occasions. They bring beauty to our church and greatly enhance the atmosphere of our worship space.

We also have a flower fund, and anyone is welcome to contribute. Donations may be given to celebrate birthdays, wedding anniversaries, or other special events.

Our Flower Co-ordinator is Angela Wilkins. Please speak to her if you would like to arrange flowers in church for a special occasion.

Notes on an Execution - Lenten Reflections on the Last Days of Jesus By Rhidian Brook, SPCK, £9.99

Bestselling novelist and broadcaster Rhidian Brook invites you to step back into the story of Holy Week and see it unfold as if you were there. Told as a series of vivid, real-time eyewitness reports, Notes on an Execution takes you from Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem to His execution and beyond, without the cushion of hindsight. You stand among the crowds and disciples, experiencing each moment with all its original tension, shock and surprise – full of the confusion and hope felt by those who first encountered Jesus.

Rooted in biblical accounts and historical insight, Notes on an Execution brings fresh life to a story that has shaped the world for two thousand years. Perfect for Lent reading, small groups or personal devotion, it will help you see the story you thought you knew with new eyes... and feel its urgency and wonder afresh.

"Don't worry about your son, he is set to become a great politician," the teacher said. The parents were delighted and asked how she could tell. "Well, he can say more things that sound well and mean nothing at all than anyone else in the class."
