CLERGY THOUGHTS

WHAT NOW!!!

For many, now we are in a new year, Christmas and its jollity is behind us, done and dusted – once brightly illuminated trees are now squeezed back in their boxes in the dark of the loft, or bound for the great shredder or donkey fodder! Decorations neatly packed ready for next Christmas-tide.

But that is disappointing – in the Church the Christmas season only starts on Christmas Day and concludes this year on February 2nd – on the celebration of the Presentation in the Temple, often known as Candlemas, and marks the end of the remembrance of the Jesus' nativity and infancy. This is when the Church should down its festive decorations.

The mismatch between the popular season and the reason for the season seems to widen each year, especially since some Easter eggs and hot-cross-buns were spotted on Boxing Day!

Twelve days after Christmas we celebrate the beginning of the sub-season of Epiphany, which starts with the visitation of the wise men (magi, kings) to the infant Jesus – quite probably when he was 3 or 4 years old. Epiphany means manifestation or revelation – and celebrates a season where the reality and identity of the person of Jesus Christ was being made known.

This year the Epiphany season contains the visit of the wise men which marks the recognition by the gentile revelation John the Baptist points people to the Messiah they were expecting and baptises him, Jesus starts to preach identifying his mission from God to his own people, and at the Presentation in the Temple Jesus is identified, through Anna and Simeon, as the long expected messiah 'the consolation of his people', reflects Isaiah's promise that he was the 'glory of Israel', and 'a light for revelation to the gentiles'.

It is worth dwelling in Epiphany and not just rushing past to the next season – take time deepening our understanding of the incarnated Jesus Messiah, enriching our discipleship in following him and preparing our hearts to kneel and worship at his feet.

And then:

'When the song of the angels is stilled
when the star in the sky is gone
when the kings and princes are home
when the shepherds are back with their flocks
the work of Christmas begins:
    to find the lost
    to heal the broken
    to feed the hungry
    to release the prisoner
    to rebuild the nations
    to bring peace among people
    to make music in the heart.' *

May we listen, follow, and bow the knee with greater intent, as we enter the joy and journey of this new year, as we deepen the awareness our Lord and Saviour who has made his dwelling within us - Emmanuel.

Blessings of this New Year to all,

Revd Mark

(*Howard Thurman, from 'Christmas begins')

THANK YOU

With grateful thanks to Jackie and Mark and Charlotte and Jane and all our wonderful Readers and PTOs and Lay Worship Leaders for the beautiful and thoughtful services through Advent and Christmas. Thank you also to our Churchwardens and all those 'behind the scenes' who put so much work into bringing everything together to make our churches such wonderful places to be at such a special time of year.

OTHER NEWS FROM IN AND AROUND THE WEST WIGHT BENEFICE

CURATES' CORNER

HOLY MOMENTS, SLIPPERY BABIES, AND VILLAGE LIFE

As my year of curacy in rural ministry draws to a close, I realise it has been a year in which I have learned many things – chiefly that God is faithful, village life is glorious, and satin baby outfits should come with a warning label.

It has been a huge privilege to share in the holy moments of our villages. I celebrated my first two baby baptisms this year; one baby, dressed head-to-toe in beautifully shiny satin, achieved the texture and manoeuvrability of a well-buttered bar of soap. I am pleased to report that the baby was successfully returned to Mum without injury.

Alongside this have been the quieter, sacred moments: walking with families through funerals, and offering God's presence in times of both joy and sorrow – often with the kettle on. I have loved being part of our primary school and joining village life in all its forms, including face painting at the summer fete and the Christmas fair. One toddler found the experience so relaxing that she fell asleep halfway through having her face painted. I took this as either a great success or a sign I should consider a new ministry in children's meditation.

Our pet services have been a particular highlight. We have welcomed alpacas into church (who behaved impeccably), a dragon (who did not breathe fire, for which the PCC were grateful), and of course the church's long-standing resident spiders and silverfish. All were equally included as we celebrated God's love for all creation – furry, feathered, scaly, and occasionally slightly a-lam'ing.

This year has also been a time of prayerful discernment, leading to a call to become an oblate of a convent in Oxford – a reminder that God continues to work quietly, faithfully and sometimes sneakily among us.

Across the parishes I have taken part in what clergy cheerfully refer to as "hatch, match, and dispatch". Having now managed both the hatch and the dispatch, I am very much looking forward to celebrating the match next year, ideally with less opportunity for things to wriggle unexpectedly.

There has been talk nationally of a "quiet revival", and it can be tempting to think that such things happen somewhere else entirely. Yet when three extra people join a congregation of around ten, that's nearly a 30% increase – which, statistically speaking, is nothing short of miraculous. God is clearly at work among us, often gently, often unnoticed, but with a very good sense of humour.

 I feel deeply blessed to walk alongside you all and I am immensely thankful for the warmth, welcome, laughter, and shared life of our villages. It has been a joy – and only occasionally a health and safety concern. Blessings, soap and grace to you

Rev'd Charlotte Hudd

MOSAICS IN BRIGHSTONE

The Smugglers Mosaic was finally installed outside the Village Hall in Brightstone on Saturday 13th December. The mosaic which was commissioned by the Parish Council recognises the smuggling heritage in the village and was unveiled by Rev Jackie and John Cirrone from the Parish Council. The design concept was created by Brightstone artist, Geoff Prior and made by the Community Mosaic Group led by Ali at St Mary's. The posts were donated by Buckets and Tim Prior, David Crewe and Nigel Smith created the plywood base and installed the mosaic. It was a sunny afternoon and entertainment by the Brightstone Barnacles included their smuggling song was much enjoyed!

The Community Mosaic Group's project for the 2025 Christmas Tree Festival has been to create 8 Christmas Carol panels for Church Porch at St Mary's. The Porch display has been much enjoyed by visitors to the Festival and villagers. The Carol panels will be in the church porch along with the Mosaic Nativity and Advent calendar in the church from previous years until the 3rd January. Christmas trees are still in the church but due to be taken down 1st/2nd January.

QUIET MORNING at PORCHFIELD

You are invited to a
CELTIC ENCOUNTER - LENTEN QUIET MORNING

SCHOOL SNIPPETS - sharing snippets of news from our associated church schools.

BRIGHTSTONE CE AIDED PRIMARY SCHOOL

We had a very busy period leading up to Christmas.

Each year, we present a tree in Brightstone’s Christmas Tree Festival. This year, to celebrate reading and writing, KS1 and KS2 have drawn the front cover of their favourite book, and some have written the blurb on the back. Reception class have decorated paper pencils to celebrate writing (they have been doing some amazing writing in class!).

On the Wednesday evening, to start the Christmas Tree Festival, our head pupils, Flo, Hugh, Martha and Henry, had the honour of lighting the tree outside the church. We then joined the rest of the congregation in the church for the Lights of Love service. Our head pupils were delighted to have VIP seats with laminated name labels!

We had a fantastic time when we took Y1 – Y6 to see Aladdin at the King’s Theatre in Southsea. Oh no, we didn’t! Oh yes, we did! (I had to, sorry...) The children were all very excited and loved it when they got soaked by the water guns. They were awestruck when Aladdin flew high above the stage on his magic carpet and enjoyed laughing along to Widow Twankey and her extraordinary costumes and silly jokes.

Our last week in school was packed full of fun. The children wowed us with their singing, dancing, acting and musical performances during our Christmas Concert held in St Mary's Church.

We also held our traditional Christingle Service in the church. The children made their Christingles that morning, before carefully carrying them over to the church in the wind and the rain. There was an awe and wonder moment when the main lights were turned off, with only the flickering candlelight and the delicate lights from the Christmas trees around us. In that moment, we were thinking about Jesus as the light of the world, and the love that he shares around the world. I must also mention Steve and Beccy Noyes and our school bellringing team, who bring something very special to our church services and events. We are very lucky to have them.

Finally, we had a very special visitor on the last day of term: Father Christmas! He took time out of his very busy schedule to visit us.

Mrs Rebecca Lennon, Headteacher

THE FEDERATION CHURCH SCHOOLS OF SHALFLEET AND FRESHWATER & YARMOUTH

A message from Freshwater & Yarmouth School and Shalfleet school –

Freshwater & Yarmouth
CE Primary School

"We had an amazingly busy time in the run up to Christmas - we look forward to sharing our news with you on our return. The children and staff send best wishes to you all for the start of the New Year, as we all take a well-earned break and look forward to all that 2026 brings"

Elizabeth Grainger (Head Teacher)

BRIGHTSTONE PRAYER LIST FOR THIS MONTH:

*Staff and residents of Brightstone Grange Care Home, Keith Cram, Pat Conn, Alec, Kelly Russell.
Giving thanks for answered prayer.*

And we pray for the families of all those recently bereaved.

(If anyone else leads a prayer chain or holds a prayer list in our parishes and wishes to share the names of people who would appreciate ongoing prayers, please let me know - JB/Editor)

CELEBRATING OUR CHURCH ORGANISTS

There's a growing shortage of Church Organists! Thankfully in West Wight we have some amazing dedicated and talented organists who support our services and celebrations throughout the year. I was contacted recently by a parishioner Julia Sheard, in Freshwater, who wanted to mark a significant birthday of Freshwater organist Chris MacKay and she asked if she might share a family poem written some time ago in celebration of Chris' dedication to All Saints Church. I think the sentiment shares well in the context of all our organists who bring so much to the joy of worship.

A POEM FOR CHRIS TO CELEBRATE A SPECIAL BIRTHDAY – shared by Julia Sheard and family.

In All Saints Church by Freshwater tide,
Chris sits in humble, gentle pride.
Four decades served in joy and strain,
On sacred keys his soul's refrain.

Through Matins bright and Evensong's hush
Through whispering reeds and trumpet's blush,
Through plainchant's rhythm and common
worship's pace,
Each tune is touched by his unique grace.

In times of joy and times of pain,
Through wedding's cheers and times of pain,
His music comforts and it soars,
In every Service his spirit roars.

Choirs have shifted, faces anew,
Yet Chris's organ song stays true,
Vicars have come and then departed,
But Chris's service it's never darted.

His anthems composed for each special day,
Bring forth the Churches joyful play,
Through every note and every rest,
Chris gives to All Saints his very best.

So, raise your hearts in warm delight,
On this day of joyful light,
To celebrate Chris and Betty too,
For their love, their art, their service true.

So many years of music's spell
In All Saints Church where love does dwell
Here's to Chris, our organist dear,
And to many more years of music clear.
