The Newsletter

Why are the grass verges of our lanes so badly eroded this winter? And why so many new makeshift passing places? Who is doing it? It can't just be blamed on heavy plant for the cabling to new substations - or tractors and farm vehicles. So what's the cause? Delivery vans? 4x4s? Or just too many cars in too much of a hurry?

It's a shame - for a country lane is not just an historic part of the landscape but a thing of ordinary beauty. Verges are full of life and colour - long ribbons of uncultivated grassland punctuated with shrubs and trees and wildflowers. Why reduce them to a quagmire of angry-looking tyre marks? The Highway Code needs another rule: 'Leave no trace'.

Country lanes are not designed for speed. How much time is saved by refusing to slow down and use a passing place? If I trespass on the verge I cause damage, contribute to erosion and leave an ugly scar.

Perhaps I think no one will notice - or no one will know it was me. Is that how I am in the rest of my life? Am I in such a hurry that I don't care whether I transgress boundaries or cut corners or leave ugliness in my wake? What am I doing that is so important that I can't go at a pace where I navigate my way more carefully with thought for how my conduct impacts the world around me?

Lent is an annual invitation to pause and ask myself some direct questions - to try to see myself as others might. Or (to put it more plainly) to see myself as God sees me, where nothing is hidden and there's no pretending. And, given my erosion of boundaries, to seek forgiveness, go deep, take time to pray, go to church. Lent begins on 18th February.

There's no motoring in the spiritual life. No short cuts. No rushing. Pilgrimage means walking. Jesus doesn't hurry: I'm meant to follow, not overtake. 'Narrow is the way that leads to life'. So, as signs in Norfolk byways have it: 'Slow you down.'

Ash Wednesday Service

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent and falls on 18th February this year. Do join us at 10am in Swardeston Church that day for a service of Holy Communion with Ashing - the ancient custom of receiving the mark of the cross on the forehead in ash as a sign of intention to keep a holy Lent.

Swardeston Day Centre

The big news this month is the appointment of a new manager for the Day Centre - and farewell to Lesley and 'happy travelling'. We welcome Sinead Auker, and wish her every success in her new post. We have a few spaces for clients on Mondays and Wednesdays, so do come along for a free trial day with us. We offer companionship, socialising, and a full programme of gentle exercising, games, quizzes, talks, art and entertainment. Refreshments, morning and afternoon and a delicious home cooked lunch in a warm and caring atmosphere. Drivers needed to transport clients - mileage paid. For enquiries contact Sinead (from 5th February) on 01508 578826 Monday or Wednesday 10am - 3pm or email Info@swardestondaycentre.org or visit our website at www.swardestondaycentre.org

Ketteringham & East Carleton History Group

The next meeting of Ketteringham & East Carleton History Group will be held at 10.30am on Saturday 14th February at Hall Farm House, Church Rd, Ketteringham. All welcome.

Ketteringham Crib Service

The collection of £232 was gratefully received by 'Embrace the Middle East', a charity which supports families affected by the conflict in the Middle East.

Stamp collecting for the Guide Dogs Association

Many thanks to those who have kindly left used stamps at the back of Swardeston Church for the Guide Dogs for the Blind Association. A huge parcel is being sent off but please keep stamps coming! Sylvia Barber.

Norwich Foodbank

The box for Norwich Foodbank is in the church porch at Intwood for donations, or if someone needs food. Many thanks for your generosity.

Ladybelt Country Park

Help needed

Ladybelt Country Park is looking for regular visitors of the Park to help open and close the compost toilet.

Nature Figurine donation

If you're having a clear out, wildlife figurines are wanted for a Park project.

Diary date and volunteer callout

A Viking and Community Summer Fayre is being planned for Sunday 7th June at the Park. This will link local history with a re-enactment of the life of a Viking farmer. Other activities are planned and volunteers are wanted to help out.

New War Memorial and Service of Dedication

A new memorial tablet to commemorate the men from Swardeston who died during World War 2 has been installed by the existing WW1 memorial by the lych gate to Swardeston Church. A Service of Dedication at the war memorials is arranged for Sunday March 29th at 11.30am (after the 10.30am Morning Service in church). A group of army veterans is expected with standards and bugler, together with members of the men's remaining families, and everyone is most welcome. Refreshments will be available in the Cavell Room after the service.

'Enter by the narrow gate;

for the gate is wide and the way is easy, that leads to destruction, and those who enter by it are many.

For the gate is narrow and the way is hard, that leads to life, and those who find it are few.'

Matthew 7.13,14
