PRAYER FOR THIS SUNDAY

Almighty God,
who caused the light of the gospel to shine
throughout the world through the preaching of your servant Saint Paul: grant that we who celebrate his wonderful conversion
may follow him in bearing witness to your truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

REFLECTIONS.....REV. BEA ERSKINE

The Conversion of Paul

When you think of St Paul, do you have a picture of how he looked in your mind? Although there isn't a detailed description in the New Testament, in other writings he is described as small of stature with bow (bandy) legs, a bald head and bushy eyebrows meeting in the middle, so probably not the most handsome of chaps. In the reading from Acts this Sunday we hear the story of his conversion on the road to Damascus. It is a truly gripping read, Saul of Tarsus (St Paul) was a very zealous and faithful Jew, convinced that the new Way, i.e. following Jesus, was wrong, he was focused, brutal and absolutely confident in his mission to bring all who followed Jesus to account.

CONTINUED....

So it is hard to imagine the total devastation and terror he must have felt when through the brilliant light that appeared to him on the road and actually spoke to him was Jesus himself. God had kept his promise, to rescue his people, but in the most outrageous and shocking way – Jesus, crucified, died and risen from the dead. Blinded by the light, the shock was profound and his whole life from that moment on was given to Jesus, an extraordinary ministry that was to propel the Good News of the gospel into the wider world, the ripples of which we still feel today as we encounter St Paul in his wonderful letters and writings.
