SUNDAY'S READINGS

A reading from the book of the prophet Isaiah

Thus says the Lord: Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching. Thus says God, the Lord, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the Lord, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the Lord, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols. See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

This is the Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Isaiah 42.1–9

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Matthew 3.13–17

Fr David announces his retirement as Vicar at Mitcham Parish Church:

last Sunday morning Father David, our Vicar, announced his retirement later this year - here is some of the text:

As you are all aware (and it hasn't been kept a secret), I turn 70 years of age in March – slap-bang in the middle of Lent, and there is a rule made by the Bishop in an 'Ad Clerum' – a formal letter from the Bishop to his clergy - which says that incumbents, such as myself here as Vicar of Mitcham - should prepare to stand down from being 'in charge' of a Parish at the age of 70 – to make room for a new person to come into the life of a Parish. And indeed, we have read in The Bridge recently that the Bishop of Southwark, Bishop Christopher Chessun, is leaving the diocese in August this year on the occasion of his 70th birthday.

Next month on Candlemas will mark my 11th year of ministry completed in the Parish in Mitcham, and with the advent of my 70th, I have been required to plan ahead, with the help of the Bishop and the Archdeacon, for my imminent retirement. As I was loathe to leave the Parish mid-way during Lent, I asked for permission to extend my time here through Eastertide into the summertime; and I am pleased to say that I shall be with you, as your Parish Priest, through to mid-July; beyond the major Festivals of our Lord - and even St Peter & St Paul's Day will be duly celebrated while I am with you!

I plan to step down soon afterwards, my final Sunday in the Parish being 19th July, and the Churchwardens are proposing a big BBQ Party to mark this transition on the previous Saturday 11th July.

To begin with, my partner Andrew and I will continue to stay in the Vicarage after I have retired, as we prepare for our next accommodation to be ready and available for us to move into. I shall not have a licence from the Bishop, however, so I will not be able to take Services (anywhere) beyond 19th July.

The PCC meets in a week's time (13th), where we shall start to discuss the hand-over and plans for the future of the Parish. The Archdeacon is planning to help out, taking Services and supporting the PCC, and other Clergy will also come in - alongside Rev'd Jackie - to ensure that the life of the Parish continues; however, a lot falls on the Churchwardens, PCC and YOUR continued support .

HOWEVER please be assured it is "Services as Usual" until mid-July - and I look forward to continuing to further God's plans for the Parish with you until then...

The Julian Meetings

- ✿ are for people of all denominations – or none – who wish to join with others in contemplative, meditative prayer in the Christian tradition.
- ✿ start with a brief reading and / or piece of music, which leads into about half-an-hour of still, totally silent, prayer. The time of prayer is gently brought to a close, with a closing prayer and is followed by fellowship, and a chance for conversation.

The Julian Meeting

- ✿ fosters the teaching and practice of contemplative prayer & meditation in the Christian tradition
- ✿ encourages people to practise contemplative prayer in their daily lives, and to explore ways of doing this which are appropriate for them as individuals
- ✿ acknowledges the value of other ways of praying at other times, but a Julian Meeting has the one focus, and that is solely for contemplative, meditative prayer.
