Reading from the Old Testament

Isaiah 60: verses 1 to 6

The Ingathering of the Dispersed

Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the Lord has risen upon you. For darkness shall cover the earth, and thick darkness the peoples; but the Lord will arise upon you, and his glory will appear over you. Nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your dawn. Lift up your eyes and look around; they all gather together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far away, and your daughters shall be carried on their nurses' arms. Then you shall see and be radiant; your heart shall thrill and rejoice, because the abundance of the sea shall be brought to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you. A multitude of camels shall cover you, the young camels of Midian and Ephah; all those from Sheba shall come. They shall bring gold and frankincense and shall proclaim the praise of the Lord.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Reading

Matthew 2: verses 1 to 12

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew.

All: Glory to you, O Lord.

The Visit of the Wise Men

In the time of King Herod, after Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, wise men from the East came to Jerusalem, asking, 'Where is the child who has been born king of the Jews? For we observed his star at its rising and have come to pay him homage.'

When King Herod heard this, he was frightened, and all Jerusalem with him; and calling together all the chief priests and scribes of the people, he inquired of them where the Messiah was to be born. They told him, 'In Bethlehem of Judea; for so it has been written by the prophet: "And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah; for from you shall come a ruler who is to shepherd my people Israel." ' Then Herod secretly called for the wise men and learned from them the exact time when the star had appeared. Then he sent them to Bethlehem, saying, 'Go and search diligently for the child; and when you have found him, bring me word so that I may also go and pay him homage.' When they had heard the king, they set out; and there, ahead of them, went the star that they had seen at its rising, until it stopped over the place where the child was. When they saw that the star had stopped, they were overwhelmed with joy.

On entering the house, they saw the child with Mary his mother; and they knelt down and paid him homage. Then, opening their treasure-chests, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they left for their own country by another road.

This is the Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, O Christ.

Reading from the New Testament

Ephesians 3: verses 1 to 12

Paul's Ministry to the Gentiles

This is the reason that I Paul am a prisoner for Christ Jesus for the sake of you Gentiles— for surely you have already heard of the commission of God's grace that was given to me for you, and how the mystery was made known to me by revelation, as I wrote above in a few words, a reading of which will enable you to perceive my understanding of the mystery of Christ. In former generations this mystery was not made known to humankind, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that is, the Gentiles have become fellow-heirs, members of the same body, and sharers in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. Of this gospel I have become a servant according to the gift of God's grace that was given to me by the working of his power.

Although I am the very least of all the saints, this grace was given to me to bring to the Gentiles the news of the boundless riches of Christ, and to make everyone see what is the plan of the mystery hidden for ages in God who created all things; so that through the church the wisdom of God in its rich variety might now be made known to the rulers and authorities in the heavenly places. This was in accordance with the eternal purpose that he has carried out in Christ Jesus our Lord, in whom we have access to God in boldness and confidence through faith in him.

This is the word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Notices

Refreshments – a big thank you to everyone who has helped with refreshments in 2025. A new rota for the start of 2026 is now on the noticeboard and help is welcome. Everyone is welcome to join us after the service for a cuppa and chat to fellow parishioners.

School Services - Pupils from Kirk Langley Primary School took part in the Christingle and Carol Crib Services in December. Both services were very well attended by parents and family members and the children read beautifully. In fact, the church was packed on both occasions. The Christingle Service raised just over £226 for The Children's Society and our thanks go to everyone who donated.

Fund Raising Gig for All Saints Tower and Bell appeal - A local band 'Untraceable' are doing a gig for us at the Folly at the Farmhouse at Mackworth on Friday 16th January at 7.30pm. Tickets are £7 on the door or from Rosie and Andrew or Chris and David. Expect a great evening of well-known music from Beyoncé, Dolly Parton, Bruce Springsteen and many more - and a bar. Please support us and bring your friends!

Next Week
