Volunteers Needed

For the New Year why not make a resolution to help out in some capacity in church. Below are a few roles that need to be filled:

Intercessions

We would still like more people to join the intercessions team for leading the prayers during the Sunday service. Guidance and advice will be given. If you are interested or would like more information, please contact Janice.

Coffee rota

It would always help to have a few more people on the rota to serve coffee after the 10am service. We normally have two people serving coffee each week.

Cleaning

Likewise, we could do with more people to clean church. It would only be every six weeks – or even less frequently if we have enough volunteers!

Legacies

Legacies are a very welcome lifeline for our churches, whether they are small or large. Please consider leaving a gift to St Mary's in your will. Please ask a church warden for a leaflet with more information.

Reflection on the The Baptism of Christ

Today's first reading from Isaiah echoes Matthew's account of the baptism scene:

Here is my servant...my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him... (Matt 3.13-17)

The mission that will be Jesus' is spelt out in some beautiful phrases from Isaiah that deserve reflection:

- He will not cry out or lift up his voice
- ...a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench...
- he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth...
- I have called you in righteousness...
- I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.

Those final phrases will be quoted by Jesus himself as the proclamation of his mission in the synagogue of his home town, Nazareth (Luke 4:18-20).

All of this is contained in this simple but majestic scene with John the Baptist in the River Jordan. It is a great manifestation of God's presence among us through the Person of Jesus our King and Lord.
