At Candlemas we remember Mary and Joseph bringing the infant Jesus to the Temple, where Simeon and Anna recognise in him the light of God's salvation. After long years of faithful waiting, they rejoice to see God's promise fulfilled and give thanks for what has been entrusted to them.

This Candlemas moment feels especially poignant as we give thanks for Jean Ray, who has served as Churchwarden with faithfulness and care. We pray God's blessing on Jean as she steps down from this role, and we are grateful that she will continue to serve among us in her ministry as Sacristan and Verger.

In the Minster on Sunday, we will be thanking Jean as part of our worship and praying God's blessing on her as she enters this next season.

Candlemas reminds us that God's light is passed on through faithful lives, and that every season of service has its own gift.

Please pray for:

Pat Powell, Val Warner, Paul Avis, Jennifer Palmer, Sue Taylor, Jeanne Allen, Karen Wilkes
and all those in need of our prayers.

Please pray for the Family and Friends of the Departed:
Michael Bull, Mike Theonissan, Irve Griffiths, Betty Short
and all whose anniversaries fall at this time.
