This Sunday's Collect and Readings Year A

Introduction and Call to Worship Like the magi, we sometimes take the wrong turn on our journey because we have taken our eyes off God. Today we think about God's gentle direction in our life.

Our Mission Community Prayer Heavenly Father,

As we meet in your presence, hold us together in our Mission Community.
May your church grow as we deepen our love for you and our service to others.
Help us always to remember, though we are many, we are one body, as we all share in you, our one God.

Collect

O God,
who by the leading of a star manifested your only Son to the peoples of the earth: mercifully grant that we, who know you now by faith, may at last behold your glory face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading Isaiah 60:1-6

The light of the Lord has come and everyone will be drawn to it, bringing the wealth of the nations.

Second Reading Ephesians 3:1-12

Paul explains that the Gentiles have become fellow heirs and share the promise of Christ. It is through the Church that the wisdom of God will be made known to everyone, including rulers and authorities.

Gospel Matthew 2:1-12

Wise men from the East visit Jesus in Bethlehem, having first made the mistake of going to Jerusalem and asking for him at Herod's palace.
Herod is troubled by the idea of a new king who might supplant him. He asks the wise men to return and tell him when they have found Jesus, but they are warned in a dream to return home a different way.

PLEASE PRAY FOR

As a new school term begins, we pray for pupils in schools across Devon. We pray that this year they would have fresh enthusiasm and excitement for the year ahead. We give thanks for the links between our churches and schools and pray that this year there would be opportunities to share the good news with young people.
