Epiphany III Sunday 25th January

10am Sung Eucharist
Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty God, whose Son revealed in signs and miracles the wonder of your saving presence: renew your people with your heavenly grace, and in all our weakness sustain us by your mighty power; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the book of the Prophet Isaiah

But there will be no gloom for those who were in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali, but in the latter time he will make glorious the way of the sea, the land beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness on them light has shined.

You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder.

For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian.

A reading from the first letter of Paul to the Corinthians

Now I appeal to you, brothers and sisters, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that all of you be in agreement and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be united in the same mind and the same purpose.

For it has been reported to me by Chloe's people that there are quarrels among you, my brothers and sisters.
What I mean is that each of you says, "I belong to Paul," or "I belong to Apollos," or "I belong to Cephas," or "I belong to Christ."

Has Christ been divided?
Was Paul crucified for you?
Or were you baptised in the name of Paul?

I thank God that I baptised none of you except Crispus and Gaius, so that no one can say that you were baptised in my name. (I did baptise also the household of Stephanas; beyond that, I do not know whether I baptised anyone else.)

For Christ did not send me to baptise but to proclaim the gospel, and not with eloquent wisdom, so that the cross of Christ might not be emptied of its power.

For the message about the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.

Gospel according to Matthew

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee.

He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:
"Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali, on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles the people who sat in darkness have seen a great light, and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death light has dawned."

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near."

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea for they were fishermen.

And he said to them, "Follow me, and I will make you fish for people." Immediately they left their nets and followed him.

As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them.
Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him.

Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people

Post Communion Prayer

Almighty Father, whose Son our Saviour Jesus Christ is the light of the world: may your people, illumined by your word and sacraments, shine with the radiance of his glory, that he may be known, worshipped, and obeyed to the ends of the earth; for he is alive and reigns, now and for ever.

A PRAYER FOR HOLOCAUST

MEMORIAL DAY Loving God, Holy and immortal, on this Holocaust Memorial Day forgive us whenever we are slow to acknowledge rising hatred against the other and fail to act to protect the vulnerable, leading to catastrophe. Loving God, holy and immortal, may we always remember and mourn the six million Jewish children, women and men, and all those murdered by the Nazi regime. Loving God, holy and immortal, on this day we remember and mourn those killed in genocides across the globe. We pray for peace and an end to all war and violence, help us to see one another as You see us, all Your children, precious and beloved. Amen.

Prayers for the Third Sunday of Epiphany

Guided by the great light of divine glory, let us pray to God who calls us to follow and worship him.

Illumine the Church with the light of your truth...keep her faithful to her one Lord, Jesus Christ, avoiding contention and never trusting in human strength alone.

Shine with divine love on those who walk in darkness...Let the nations hear the gentle voice of your call and respond with joy, that there may be peace in place of strife.

As the disciples were called to be fishers of people for the Kingdom, make us obedient to the call to be ministers of the Gospel in our homes, our work, our community.

As our Lord Jesus in his earthly ministry healed all kinds of sickness and disease, may his healing power come now to the sick and injured...We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially...

Joan Wood, Claire Coombes, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Joan Whitford, Sharron Simcock, Billy Power and young Lilly.

...Strengthen and enable all who work to heal the sick.

We remember before you those who were your disciples in this world and now rejoice in the great light of heaven... We remember especially: Jack Morris, Harry Ede, Olive Rollason (26th), Phyllis Symonds (27th), Catherine Pope (29th), Donald Davis (30th), Bernard Andrew (31st).

We give thanks that you have indeed multiplied their joy.

Rejoicing that we are led in the way of obedience and love, we pray to the Lord of light and truth. Amen.
