READING Acts 10. 34 – 43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius. 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

GOSPEL Matthew 3. 13 – end

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, 'I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?' But Jesus answered him, 'Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfil all righteousness.' Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, 'This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.'

Our Iranian friends

You have probably heard that Ramin, Fariba and Zahra are back in Gillingham on what is hoped to be a permanent basis, having been found a flat by Dorset Council. The difficulty is that this flat is unfurnished – at the time of writing it has just beds and a washing machine (no chairs, table, curtains or carpets). If you can think of any ways in which you could help, either financially, with furniture and other household necessities, or with practical assistance (ex: access to a van to help move large items), please let Margaret know. In addition, Ramin is not well. The family undoubtedly feel embarrassed at requesting more help when you have been so generous when they first came here. Thank you.
