Psalm 145 verse 4

During January and February this year, I had the privilege of attending Youthscape Launchpad, a training programme with six other members of clergy in the area. I found the sessions challenging, inspirational and very thought provoking.

Launchpad was developed and piloted with churches in the Church of England in the Diocese of London, St Alban's and Blackburn. Launchpad is now running across over 20 Diocese representing a wide range of contexts: urban, rural, the theological breadth of the church. Further information can be found here youthscape.co.uk/launchpad

Over five two-hour sessions, Launchpad featured expert, insightful teaching on youth culture, case studies of different types of youth work, and guidance on how to build a team of volunteers. We completed simple exercises that built into a concrete strategy.

The programme showed how to develop youthwork from successful children's work already happening churches; and we explored how starting with a handful of teenagers already in the church to begin a project. Taking part in the sessions and doing the homework gave me the chance to think again and to reflect on the possibilities that could arise through prayer, innovation, informed strategy, and a renewed vision for youthwork in our Parish; and a renewed for youthwork in our Parish; and the potential to work in collaboration with other community agencies in a similar way that members of St Winifred's church already work alongside the workers at the Limes Farm Youth Club.

On the evening of Thursday 9th May there will be a chance for members of our churches to attend a celebration hosted by Adam, the Bishop of Bradwell, where I, and the other members of my cohort, will share what progress we are making in our contexts. I will be sending personal invitations to join me on this occasion but please do get in touch if you are interested in coming along and getting involved.

As a result of taking part in Launchpad, I have been given the confidence to act on a request to initiate Preparing Children for Holy Communion before they are confirmed classes. Ready to Share One Bread will run on Thursdays 12th, 19th and 26th March at 4:00pm in All Saints' House. If you or any children you know are interested in coming along please let me know, they will be very welcome. The classes will conclude with the Seder Meal on 2nd April and the children received into communion on Easter Sunday.

I have other ideas emerging too and will be actively seeking to put them into practice in partnership with others in the churches and the community.

So as we travel through Lent towards the Last Supper, the cross and the empty tomb let's be holding the younger generation in our prayers, so that many of them too may enjoy the richness of life, purpose and love with Him: here's one you may like to use.

With my love and prayers, as ever

Prayer for March 2026

Lord, in these weeks leading up to Easter, many of us spend time reflecting on what Jesus has done for us and how he can help us live our lives.

But we live in a harsh, confusing world, where traditional values are upended and we can hardly believe some of the things we hear from powerful world leaders. Truth seems to be lost in the darkness.

Lord, your word tells us that, whoever lives by the truth comes into the light. Jesus says he is the Truth. He also says he is the Light of the world.

Help us to hold fast to these facts. Help us to remember that Jesus said that in this world we will have trouble – so we shouldn't be surprised – but that he has overcome the world – so we should be encouraged.

Whatever is going on in the troubled world around us - we can live by the real Truth - and in the real Light – Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour, who will never leave us or forsake us.

Thank you so much.
In Jesus' name.
Amen.

Mothering Sunday

Mothering Sunday - the fourth Sunday of Lent- offers families an opportunity to honour the women who have nurtured them. Lots of different streams and traditions have come together to make today's Mothering Sunday the special day that it is.

In the Middle Ages it was an occasion for everyone to visit their 'mother' church - the place where they had been baptised. Later, an opportunity for those who worked away from home to visit their mothers became added to the mix of reasons to make it a special day.

Today we honour all women who have in one way or another been special to us, and in church this is usually signalled by small bunches of flowers for every woman present.

Treating mums and grans to Sunday lunch, chocolates and flowers is also part of the present mix. And will there be a simnel cake to be seen - a tradition from ages past - with its rich layers of marzipan, and eleven balls of marzipan on top, reminders of the 11 disciples who remained faithful to Jesus?

Not everyone has enjoyed a wonderful or enduring relationship with their mum, so lest we get carried away on a wave of love and sentimentality, there is usually space in the Mothering Sunday church service to reflect on and pray for those whose relationships with their mother were not all they might have been.

Also, there are the families blighted by the lack of, or death of a child; families remembering a mum who died tragically young; women who never had a child but would have dearly loved the opportunity; all these and more are a recognition of the imperfections of human love, human life.

These imperfections can be brought in prayer to the God who mothers us. In the Old Testament, Isaiah speaks of God comforting His people like a mother hen. In the New Testament, both Matthew and Luke bear witness to Jesus expressing His desire to gather His people as a mother hen gathers her chicks under her wings. Yes, God has strong maternal qualities which He invites us to discover and enjoy!

Have you discovered the mothering, nurturing, maternal qualities which God offers to all people? It's lovelier than flowers, more long-lasting than simnel cake, better than a visit from family, and it's free to everyone who wants it - it could be yours!

Palm Sunday and Holy Week

The events of Easter took place over a week, traditionally called Passion Week. It began on Palm Sunday. After all His teaching and healing, Jesus had built a following.

On the Sunday before He was to die, Jesus and His followers arrived at Jerusalem. The city was crowded. Jewish people were arriving from to celebrate Passover. This commemorates how they had escaped from slavery in Egypt nearly 1,500 year earlier.

Jesus rode into the city on a young donkey. He was greeted like a conquering hero. Cheering crowds waved palm branches in tribute. He was hailed as the Messiah who had come to re-establish a Jewish kingdom.

The next day they returned to Jerusalem. Jesus went to the temple, the epicentre of the Jewish faith, and confronted the money-changers and merchants who were ripping off the people. He overturned their tables and accused them of being thieves. The religious authorities were alarmed and feared how He was stirring up the crowds.

On the Tuesday, they challenged Jesus, questioning His authority. He answered by challenging and condemning their hypocrisy. Later that day Jesus spoke to His disciples about future times. He warned them about fake religious leaders; the coming destruction of Jerusalem; wars, earthquakes and famines; and how His followers would face persecution.

By midweek the Jewish religious leaders and elders were so angry with Jesus that they began plotting to arrest and kill Him. One of Jesus' disciples, Judas, went to the chief priests and agreed to betray Him to them.

Jesus and the 12 disciples gathered on the Thursday evening to celebrate the Passover meal. This is known as the Last Supper. During the evening, Jesus initiated a ritual still marked by Christians – Holy Communion – which commemorates His death. Jesus broke bread and shared it and a cup of wine with His disciples.

Judas then left to meet the other plotters. Jesus continued to teach the others and then went outside into an olive grove to pray. He even prayed for all future believers. He agonised over what was to come but chose the way of obedience. The Bible book, Luke, records Him praying, 'Father if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will but yours be done'. Minutes later Judas arrived with soldiers and the chief priests and Jesus was arrested.

Canon Paul Hardingham continues his seven-part series.

The Seven Deadly Sins: Anger

'Anger is never without a reason, but seldom with a good one.'
(Benjamin Franklin).

Who or what makes you angry? In the third of our Seven Deadly Sins, we are looking at anger (or wrath).

It describes uncontrolled feelings of hatred and resentment, and it can lead to resentment and grudges, quarrelling and damaged relationships. Jesus warns us about the consequence of anger: 'I tell you that anyone who is angry with a brother or sister will be subject to judgment.' (Matt 5:22).

Jesus Himself got angry, notably when He saw the Temple being exploited by the money changers (Matt 21:12-13). Such righteous anger is a measured response to injustice or evil, motivated by love not vengeance.

However, it is important for us to deal with unrighteous anger in our lives: 'In your anger do not sin: do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, and do not give the devil a foothold.' (Ephesians 4:26,27). What practical steps can we take to do this?

- Acknowledge your anger: What are the root causes of our anger? Often it comes from deeper feelings, like fear, inadequacy or the desire to control.
- Control your anger: Stepping back before reacting can prevent anger from controlling us: 'everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry' (James 1:19,20).
- Seek to forgive: Practising forgiveness, not seeking revenge or holding grudges, will enable us to overcoming anger: 'Clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you has a grievance against someone.'

(Colossians 3:12,13). Christ died to take the wrath of God we deserve, that we might know God's forgiveness.

'People who fly into a rage always make a bad landing'
(Will Rogers).

We hold 'national treasures for the common good' - new repairs fund announced

The Church of England's Director for Cathedral and Church buildings, Emily Gee, has welcomed the Government's Places of Worship Renewal Fund, and its willingness to invest in repairs and improvements for eligible parish and cathedral church buildings.

She said: "We also welcome the Government's recognition of the special role of historic churches in national life - church buildings are national treasures for the common good.

"They have huge spiritual, cultural and historical significance, and are major centres of practical assistance through food banks, lunch clubs and parent and toddler groups. They serve as a place of sanctuary, refreshment and cultural heritage throughout the UK.

"The vast majority of fundraising for the maintenance and repair of these buildings is done locally by heroic volunteers and Government support is crucial in helping them reach their targets - and we are really grateful for this ongoing support.

"However, we are very concerned that the end of the Listed Places of Worship Grant Scheme - after more than 20 years - will mean added pressure on local fundraisers and inevitably a drain on other sources of funding. We will work with the wider sector and the Government to see how that burden can be alleviated.

The Bible has many stories of mothers who had great faith in God. With their love, care, encouragement and prayers their children grew up to be great people of God.

Canon Paul Hardingham continues his series on the books of the Bible.

What's the Big Idea?

An Introduction to the Books of the Old Testament: Jeremiah

Jeremiah is described as 'a true, honest, and God-revealing companion for the worst of times.' (Eugene Peterson). He was a priest from the village of Anathoth, near Jerusalem. His ministry to Judah began in 626 B.C. and continued until after the fall of Jerusalem in 586 B.C.

Jeremiah brought a message of judgment and hope: 'See, I have set you this day over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out and to pull down, to destroy and to throw down, to build and to plant.' (1:10).

During Jeremiah's ministry, Judah had rejected the Lord for idols (2:13). They claimed to be God's people, yet they refused to heed God's word by refusing to be corrected and following false prophets who spoke what the people wanted to hear. Therefore, Jeremiah was the prophet of judgement. He called Judah to repent, but they refused (6:16-17). However, he also brought a message of hope. He preached that they should trust God (9:23-24) and that a faithful remnant would be restored to the land (23:3; 31:7-9).

Jeremiah was a reluctant prophet, who felt compelled to speak God's word (20:9). His life was characterised by sorrow, 'O my Comforter in sorrow, my heart is faint within me.' (8: 18). His people continually refused to listen to him, rewarding his labour with rejection and persecution.

Much of Jeremiah's message remains relevant today, because we still fall into idolatry, whether it is wealth, talents or social standing. Sin requires repentance and restoration; obedience brings blessings and joy with it. However, Jeremiah also points to Christ, as the one who makes this possible. He showed great compassion for

His people and shed tears for them. He suffered their ingratitude, but still forgave them.

The Rev'd Dr Jo White continues her series on aspects of Christianity.

Reflected Faith Series: Togetherness

Last month we began our Lenten journey with ashes on Ash Wednesday, reminding us of our beginning and our ending; soon we will conclude that time with Christ's resurrection on Easter Sunday.

Such a relatively short time for so great a distance. I'm reminded of this by the opening words used in Church of England services at the Palm Sunday services:

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ, during Lent we have been preparing by works of love and self-sacrifice for the celebration of our Lord's death and resurrection. Today we come together to begin this solemn celebration in union with the Church throughout the world. Christ enters His own city to complete His work as our Saviour, to suffer, to die, and to rise again. Let us go with Him in faith and love, so that, united with Him in His sufferings, we may share His risen life.

It's all about togetherness. Together as a small group of people in that one church where we worship. Together with 'the' Church across all denominations and throughout the world. Together with Christ Himself.

It's one of the reasons that we process on Palm Sunday. Ideally it will be a joyful and noisy procession with banners and rejoicing – reminding us of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem as much as into our own lives.

This month

It's in this joy wherein lies the contrast with our solemn and silent procession on Good Friday. We need them both. One on its own doesn't tell the full story. Just like a play on Good Friday without its follow-up on Easter Sunday leaves you hanging.

We all know that social media tends to only show happy occasions but that underneath all those meals and holidays and smiling faces there can be great heartaches and sorrows.

It's the togetherness of both of those emotions where the true depth of joy is to be found and not on the surfaces.

How do we greet Christ anew on Resurrection Sunday without the devastating loss of Good Friday, or that long week travelling in and out of the city walls? May you find real joy in togetherness this Eastertide!

Canon Paul Hardingham considers the crowds of Jerusalem...

The Way of the Cross

'Whoever wants to be My disciple must deny themselves and take up their cross daily and follow Me.' (Luke 9: 23)

These words of Jesus are spoken at a turning point in the gospel. Jesus challenged the disciples about His identity and their commitment to Him: 'who do the crowds say I am?' (Luke 9:18). It is at this point that He 'resolutely set out for Jerusalem' (9:51). On our journey through Lent, as we look to the events of Good Friday and Easter, what are our priorities as Jesus' disciples?

To deny ourselves: this means to saying No to ourselves and Yes to God, as we humbly submit our will to His. Jesus prayed in the Garden of Gethsemane 'not My will but Yours be done.'

(Luke 22:42). It means putting Jesus first in everything: our work, family, ambitions, possessions, marriage, finance and future. We will not be guided by self-interest, but by allowing God to show us how to live in His way.

To take up our cross: this reminds us that the disciple is not immune from suffering, as we follow Jesus along the way of the cross. Just as He carried His cross to Golgotha, we cannot avoid experiencing suffering in a fallen world. Every day we are to live in way that demonstrates to everyone that we have died to ourselves, our selfish ways and ambitions, and seek to live for God. It means breaking old selfish habits and ways of thinking, as we allow God to renew us by His Spirit.

Perhaps that is something we should learn—to wait for Jesus our Master, to be always obedient to Him, to serve Him with all our hearts, and to bear the mark of His grace in our lives.

In all of this we cannot lose, because like Jesus, it is only through death that we find God's new life. 'He is no fool who gives what he cannot keep, to gain that which he cannot lose.' (Jim Elliot).

A prayer as Lent continues

Let me hold fast to You, beautiful Lord, whom the angels themselves yearn to look upon. Wherever You go, I will follow You. If You pass through fire, I will not flinch, I fear no evil when You are with me. You carry my griefs, because You grieve for my sake. You passed through the narrow doorway from death to life, to make it wide enough for all to follow. Nothing can ever now separate me from Your love.

The Bishop of Chelmsford's Lent Appeal 2026

Supporting the work of ADSMKE in response to climate change and in environmental conservation

Anglican Development Services of Mt Kenya East is the development arm of the Anglican Church of Kenya, dedicated to serving communities in our five linked partner dioceses - Embu, Kirinyaga, Meru, Mbeere and Marsabit - in Kenya.

Communities across Mt Kenya East are facing the harsh realities of the climate crisis. Years of recurring drought have devastated harvests, depleted natural resources and pushed families into increased hardship. In response to these challenges, ADSMKE is leading inspiring, community-driven work to restore the environment and strengthen livelihoods.

Funds raised through the Bishop of Chelmsford's Lent Appeal will enable ADSMKE to expand vital climate and conservation projects that:

- Build community resilience to climate change
- Improve biodiversity and restore damaged ecosystems
- Enhance food security through sustainable agriculture
- Create economic opportunities rooted in environmental stewardship
- Equip future generations to care for God's creation

Projects include:

Tree Planting and Tree Nurturing

Investing in Farmer-Managed Natural Regeneration (FMNR)

Investing in Agroforestry Systems

Farming God's Way

Afternoon tea, anyone?

Do you take afternoon tea? Ever wondered where it started? The custom seems to date back to the mid-19th century, and the seventh Duchess of Bedford, Anna Russell. The Duchess got hungry at about 4pm each day, calling it “that sinking feeling”. As it was still four hours until dinner (at 8pm), she began to have sandwiches or a small cake with some tea. Her friends thought this was marvellous, and the idea spread quickly through (hungry) upper class circles.

Soon, it seems, everyone in England was looking forward to Afternoon Tea, and a great British tradition was born. Though, during the last century, the sandwiches and cake gave way to biscuits, still we reached for the teapot each afternoon. Not so much anymore, it seems. In the last five years, sales of tea and biscuits have dropped. Perhaps we are drinking coffee? The research was done by retail analysts Mintel.

Holy Days: 17th March: St Patrick, beloved apostle to Ireland

St Patrick is the patron saint of Ireland. If you’ve ever been in New York on St Patrick’s Day, you’d think he was the patron saint of New York as well... the flamboyant parade is full of American/Irish razzmatazz.

It’s all a far cry from the hard life of this 5th century humble Christian who became in time both bishop and apostle of Ireland. Patrick was born the son of a town councillor in the west of England, between the Severn and the Clyde. But as a young man he was captured by Irish pirates, kidnapped to Ireland, and reduced to slavery. He was made to tend his master’s herds.

Desolate and despairing, Patrick turned to prayer. He found God was there for him, even in such desperate circumstances. He spent much time in prayer, and his faith grew and deepened, in contrast to his earlier years, when he “knew not the true God”.

Then, after six gruelling, lonely years he was told in a dream he would soon go to his own country. He either escaped or was freed, made his way to a port 200 miles away and eventually persuaded some sailors to take him with them away from Ireland.

After various adventures in other lands, including near-starvation, Patrick landed on English soil at last, and returned to his family. But he was much changed. He had enjoyed his life of plenty before; now he wanted to devote the rest of his life to Christ. Patrick received some form of training for the priesthood, but not the higher education he really wanted.

But by 435, well-educated or not, Patrick was badly needed. Palladius' mission to the Irish had failed, and so the Pope sent Patrick back to the land of his slavery. He set up his see at Armagh and worked principally in the north. He urged the Irish to greater spirituality, set up a school, and made several missionary journeys.

Patrick's writings are the first literature certainly identified from the British Church. They reveal sincere simplicity and a deep pastoral care. He wanted to abolish paganism, idolatry, and was ready for imprisonment or death in the following of Christ.

Patrick remains the most popular of the Irish saints. The principal cathedral of New York is dedicated to him, as, of course, is the Anglican cathedral of Dublin.

Holy Days: 19th March: St Joseph, patron saint of fathers and holy death

Why should St Joseph's 'day' be in March? Surely, he belongs to Advent and Christmas, at Mary's side in millions of nativity scenes around the world.

In any case, as the foster-father of Christ and husband of Mary, Joseph played a major part in the story of the coming of Jesus Christ. All that we know about him for sure is in the gospels. Read especially Matthew 1 – 2. He was of Davidic descent, but his trade as a carpenter shows that he was not at all wealthy.

Joseph's gentleness and decency towards Mary, and his willingness to do God's will when it was revealed to him, portray him as a kind and godly person. Joseph is the patron saint of fathers of families, and he makes an excellent example. He comes across as a protecting, loyal, thoughtful, self-controlled person, full of integrity, and willing to work hard. Who wouldn't want a father like that?

Joseph is also the patron saint of all who desire a holy death. Thus, countless churches, hospitals and religious congregations are dedicated to Joseph.

Bible Bite

A short story from the Bible

It can be read in the Bible in Matthew 25: 14-30

Jesus told a story to help his disciples to be ready for the end of time. 'A rich man was about to go on a journey...'

He gave his servants money to look after, depending on what they could do.

He gave 5 bags of coins to the first, 2 to the second, and 1 to the third.

As soon as he had gone,
the first two servants started to work.

The one with 5 bags of coins used them to earn 5 more,

and the one with 2 bags used them to earn another 2!

The third servant dug a hole and buried his bag.

When the master came back, he called his servants to him...

The first two showed him they had doubled his money, and he was very happy with them.

You are a hard man who expects us to work. I was afraid so I just hid it.

If you knew what I expected, why didn't you do it?

Get out of here!

Tidale lives near Mousehole, in Cornwall.

Claire from St Mary's has recently self published two young children's picture books all about her adventurous mouse called Tidale.

Tidale Goes to the Seaside

Tidale flies with his seagull friend Gully to the seaside, where he rides on the big red sea tractor across to Burgh Island.

Tidale Goes to Dartmoor

Tidale flies to Dartmoor with Gully and meets up with his friend Penny for a lovely cream tea and some rock climbing.

Tidale Around the Clock

Find out about all the things that Tidale does during his very busy day including getting his whiskers trimmed at Micey's Cuts.

Tidale Spring Cleans

Find out how sparkling, spic and span Tidale keeps his mousehole, with his special tail mouse mop.

Both books are £10.99 each, with 15% of proceeds going to St Mary's Church and Mill Grove Children's Home.

WORDSEARCH – Love and serve one another

On Maundy Thursday we recall the final command that Jesus gave to his disciples before his death. After the Last Supper, He rose and washed his disciples' feet. This was astonishing for a 'teacher' to do, but He had a firm purpose in mind: "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." His disciples were to love through service, not domination, of one another.

In Latin, the opening phrase of this sentence is 'mandatum novum do vobis'. The word 'mundy' is thus a corruption of the Latin 'mandatum' (or command). The 'washing of the feet' ceremony was an important part of the medieval church's liturgy, symbolising the humility of the clergy, in obedience to the example of Christ.

24 HOUR PERSONAL SERVICE FROM PEOPLE WHO GENUINELY CARE FOR EACH FAMILY.

How God works

A grandmother was taking her young grandson for a walk in the park. The daffodils were in bloom, and it was a beautiful Spring day. Wanting to encourage her grandson's spiritual understanding of the world, she said: "Doesn't it look like an artist painted this scenery? Did you know God did all this?"

Her grandson replied: "Oh yes, and God did it left-handed, too." In astonishment, the grandmother asked what he meant. "Well, He must have done," said her grandson, "because we learned at church last week that Jesus sits on God's right hand."

"I think the D.I.Y. Palm Sunday palm-kit you ordered online is here, dear..."

How many church members does it take to change a light bulb?

What do you mean CHANGE??? That light bulb was given in memory of my grandmother! My father installed it with his bare hands! He donated his time AND the use of his ladder to do it, too! My family's been members of this church for four generations! And if you think you're going to come in here and make a bunch of changes all of a sudden, vicar, you've got another think coming!

Politicians welcome

At the pearly gates, St Peter greeted a church minister and member of Parliament and gave them their room keys. "Vicar, here are the keys to one of our nice single rooms. And for you, Mr MP, the keys to our finest penthouse suite." "This is unfair!" cried the minister.

"Listen," St Peter said, "ministers are a ten a penny up here, but this is the first MP we've ever seen."

From the magazine of the Light Music Society:

Agnus Dei was a woman composer famous for her church music – schoolchild's essay.

Most composers don't live until they are dead – child's essay

Sign on door of music shop: Gone Chopin, but have Liszt, so Bach in a Minuet!
