Reflection

Matthew 17v5 say 'While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!"' As we celebrate Valentine's Day, it is good to think about how good it feels to be loved. In this scripture, Jesus was acknowledged as being loved by the Father before his earthly ministry was completed. You need to know that you too are loved in the same way...Rev Jassica

Alpha Course from Saturday 28 February at 12pm @ The Minster vestry. In Lent this year we are starting an Alpha Course! This is a course aimed at anyone wanting to learn more about Jesus, faith and the Bible. It starts on 28 February at 12pm in the vestry at the Minster. Each session will last approx. 1.5hrs. Lunch and snacks will be provided. You will watch a film about the day's topic and have the chance to discuss your ideas and questions in small groups. The course will run every Saturday lunchtime until 16 May. There will also be an away day. There is no expectation of preparation! Just come along and see. You can learn more about Alpha at <https://alpha.org.uk/what-is-alpha>

The diocesan Chrism Eucharist is on Monday 30th March in the Cathedral at 11am. This is open to all and includes the blessing of holy oils and renewal of our commitment to ministry for clergy and laity together.

Easter Eve we will be joined by +Ian once again, so I wonder if we can be thinking, praying and asking about people to be confirmed?

Place of Welcome, St Paul's, Mondays 2pm - 4pm. A Place of Welcome provides a place for people to connect with one another and find belonging. For more information please contact Pam on 01493 858332 or check the website: <https://www.placesofwelcome.org.uk>
