From Jane Skinner

Some of us came home on Wednesday with ash on our foreheads, possibly resembling a cross, as we start our Lenten journey. A chance to weep, lament and fast as we look at the world around us or ourselves. A chance to dance, sing and be amazed at God's amazing, gracious love. But certainly, a time to enter the height and depth, strength and passion of faith rather than stay with our usual pattern. Plenty of resources to help from various denominations. The Church of England has a booklet to order or a daily message online: "Everyday Faith is the daily devotional app from the Church of England designed to inspire, equip and encourage you in your faith every day of the week. The app forms part of one of the Church of England's objectives of missional discipleship: "To become a church of missionary disciples where all God's people are free to live the Christian life, wherever we spend our time Sunday to Saturday." Hope you're inspired. And thank you for all working hard to produce pantomimes to enjoy. Oh yes they are!!! Jane

Please send Tricia (as an attachment) any posters for your church events for circulation and loading on the website. email: hartlandcoastparishes@gmail.com

Afterwards, it would be lovely to see some photos, which I can put up on the website. <https://www.hartlandcoastparishes.org/photo-gallery>

As ever, if you are sending me photos, PLEASE send them as .jpg or .png attachments for me to download, as it takes so much time to unravel them otherwise and this format is suitable for loading directly to the website without my having to play with them! Thank you, Tricia

This year MU is 150 years old and Exeter Diocese want to celebrate this!

On Friday 20th March at 11am the Cathedral is holding a banner service and would like your help. Do you know whether there are any MU banners tucked away in a corner somewhere in a church in your area, where there is no longer an active MU branch? If so, we would love someone from these churches to come (with a friend) to this service, and join in with other banner bearers.

Please contact Nickie Johnson, on n.johnson0509@btinternet.com with the name of the church, the persons involved and their email address. They need numbers as soon as possible in order to give further details in plenty of time

I will give you rest, come.

The World Day of Prayer Service will be held in the Church Rooms Hartland on Friday March 6th at 2pm. The material for this year's service has been prepared by the women of Nigeria, who bring us a powerful invitation drawn from Matthew 11:28-30. At a time when people worldwide are carrying heavy burdens, our Nigerian sisters offer profound insights into finding rest in God. ALL WELCOME

Hopefully you will have seen the posters and flyers for a new initiative at Bucks Mills - St. Anne's invites you to an informal worship event at Bucks Village Hall on Sunday March 1st, starting at 11am. You may expect bacon butties and cake!
The next one is scheduled for April 26th.
