bread & cheese & drinks
served from 12 noon — 1.30 p.m.

Minimum Donation £6 in aid of Headway Guernsey

Samantha Browning

Congratulations to Samantha who won the District Round of the Rotary Young Chef Competition and so goes forward to compete in the Cluster (regional) Round on Sunday 8th March. She would appreciate the opportunity to have another practice on a gas hob before she goes to the UK. Is there anyone who has a gas hob who would be willing to allow her to use their kitchen for about 3 hours over the weekend? Eleanore says they would be happy for them to eat the food Samantha cooks if they wish!

Methodist Minister's Reflection for March

As March arrives in our island, the days are finally stretching out, and that extra bit of light over the landscape is a very welcome sight. Even when the wind still has a bite, you can feel spring waiting in the wings.

For those living and working in the rural parishes, a few dry days are a godsend for muddy lanes and farm work. A quick glimpse of sunshine really can transform your whole week! There's something so reassuring about this steady turn of the seasons – a lovely reminder of the renewal woven into God's creation.

In the middle of these changing days, our church life keeps up its quiet rhythm of prayer. As the mornings brighten, we hope your spirits do too. You're always warmly welcome at any of our services or gatherings.

Every blessing,

Howard Stringer
