(£39,626 in all. £7,000 grant awarded but not received making a potential total balance of £46,626).

Woodkirk Walkers

Next walk is on Saturday 28th February 2026: Walk Leader - Rosie

Meet on the pavement outside the Vicarage at 10.30am, from where we will make a short car journey to the start of our walk in Woodlesford. We start alongside the river before turning into RSPB St.Aidans Nature Reserve to follow a trail across the site, then uphill and over a field to the small onsite cafe for refreshments (hot & cold drinks, soup, sandwiches, cakes). Toilet facilities available in an adjacent block. We will then follow a further trail through the Nature Reserve back to the river and our cars. Walk length approx 5 miles. The terrain is primarily unmade gravel type paths, which are prone to being uneven and puddle strewn. Also, part of the walk is up and across a field which is likely to be muddy and slippery. Appropriate sturdy footwear is therefore necessary along with clothing appropriate for the forecast weather conditions. Walkers should bring own supplementary drinks/snacks as necessary. Any questions please contact Dawn

Tuesday 17th February 4.00pm-6.00pm

Shrove Tuesday – Pancakes in the Parish Hall

Wednesday 18th February – Ash Wednesday Service at 10.00am for ashing.

Lent Groups

Lent Groups will begin on Wednesday 18th February at 11.15am after the morning service. There will be sandwiches for lunch – and these groups will continue for four or five weeks. I will let you know more details in due course.

Marching throughout March

For the whole month of March, Gail is going to walk a mile every day to help raise funds for the East Window. As you may know, Gail had not one but two strokes a couple of years ago and the four-score milestone was also passed a while back, so this is quite a big challenge to complete the walk every day in March, without missing any days – even Mother's Day!

If you would like to sponsor her - please see Gail! Many thanks.

Thank you from Sally

Thank you for all your cards and kind wishes. I still feel in a state of shock. I miss you all and wish you well. Thank you. Still keep praying for us. Love Sally

Best wishes
Sharon
