From Jane Skinner

How lovely to write with the sun shining and warmth in the air but the forecast is for cold to quickly follow. Make the most of every moment! Surely as we travel through Lent, that's a clear message: life may be short - don't waste a moment. We can't bank time, we only have this moment so make the most of it. Relish the friendship, invest in relationships, take up a hobby, praise and adore the Lord who gives us breath. Keep short accounts and be quick to apologise and forgive. I've just had a review, 18 months since the last one has passed quickly! I had committed to 'take up a hobby' and that was to try woodcut printing with Merlyn Chesterman in St. Johns, Hartland. I did squeeze it in - just a week ago and thoroughly enjoyed it. I'm now inviting 5/6 people to come and join me for a day, there is a cost but much less being shared together. If you would like to have a go, do get in touch and I'll share the joy of being inspired with a new hobby. Much needed after the disappointment of no applicants for the Team Vicar post - sorry. Jane
