Could you stand for Deanery Synod?

As new Deanery Synods will be elected this year, Worcester Deanery has tried to find creative ways to explain to parishes what happens at synod meetings and encourage more people to stand.

Lay Chair, Sue Rowlands interviewed Claudia Catterall, one of the representatives from All Saints, Worcester about why she stood for Deanery Synod and what she enjoys about it. They hope that sharing this short film will encourage others to get involved. To watch the film, click here:

The background of the entire poster is a vibrant sunset sky with warm orange and yellow tones. Several birds are shown in flight, scattered across the upper and middle sections. In the lower center, a large, dark silhouette of a cross stands prominently. The foreground is filled with the silhouettes of tall grasses or reeds, some with small seed heads, against the bright light of the setting sun.
