Food Collection for Clay Cross Food Bank: If you can help support those in need, please leave your items at Taylors Mill.
Thank you so much for your help.

Our grateful thanks go to Taylors Mill for offering this service.

A prayer for March:

Father God, we thank you that you encourage and support us as we embrace the tasks you have called us to do.

This month please pray for:

- our mission in the parish, especially in the school;
- peace throughout the world;
- all those who are ill, in body or mind.

Come and join us at our All-Age Mothering Sunday service

11am 15 March in the church hall

and help us make some lovely flower posies!

Refreshments after the service. All Welcome!

News

Church Hall: We are delighted that our beautifully refurbished hall is available for hire once again. Please see details below.

Churchyard: We are very grateful to the Environment Agency for agreeing to remove the dead tree which is straddling the river from the opposite bank, close to the church.

The snowdrops are currently creating a wonderful display in the churchyard and are well worth a visit!

Our Church Hall is available for hire
