This week you might like to pray for

- All Nations Christian College, for the staff and students during this period of change, that the premises will be purchased by a Christian organisation, and provision for new premises
- The safety and security of all living and working in the Middle East as war escalates in the area. For weapons to fall silent and a softening of leaders hearts, bringing an end to violence threatening the welfare of millions of people

The church office is open 09.00 to 13.30 hrs.
