Prayer Diary April 2026

I love You, O Lord, my strength. The Lord is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge... Psalm 18: 1-2

1st - Thank God for he is your strength and commit to Him those things that trouble you.

2nd – Maundy Thursday-Pray for those who are wrongly accused and whose freedom is curtailed; pray for God’s justice and mercy to flow through our world.

3rd– Good Friday – Take time today to meditate on Jesus’ sacrifice on the cross; pray for Christ’s redeeming love to fill your heart with wonder.

4th - Pray that God will be your shield as you go through today, guiding you in all that you do.

5th – Easter Day- Hallelujah! Christ is Risen! Give praise to God!

6th - Commit your day to God and pray for his wisdom to guide you in that you do.

7th - Pray for opportunities to serve God for the support of people that you meet today.

8th - Pray for those you know of, both close to home and far away who need to feel God’s power and strength surrounding them.

9th - Pray for those who are close to you that they may feel the love of God surrounding them this day.

10th - Pray for the people who attend the churches in our Benefice that each person may know the strength and presence of God with them each day.

The Lord is my strength and my song; He has become my salvation. Psalm 118: 14

11th—Pray that God’s song of salvation may sing in your heart this day.

12th—Pray for the places of conflict, that God’s song of love may speak through the chaos and his light may show the way of peace.

13th - Pray that throughout this day that Jesus will lead to a deeper understanding of His will for you.

14th - Pray for those who are seeking for meaning in their lives, that they may see and seek the Way of Christ.

15th - Pray for the downcast and have grown weary on their journey of faith that God’s song may be renewed in their hearts.

16th - Pray for those who take the message of God’s love and salvation to others, that all their words and actions may truly reflect God’s Way.

17th -Pray that the strength and protection of God will surround you this day and all whom you meet.

18th -Bring before God the things that trouble you and trust in his strength to guide you.

19th – Pray for God’s light and salvation to flood this world, that all may know his saving grace of redemption given freely through the Cross of Christ.

20th- God is your fortress, may you feel God’s strength surrounding you through this day.

O taste and see that the Lord is good; happy are those who take refuge in him. Psalm 34:8

21st– Find the time to sit quietly for a few moments today to feel the presence of God, holding you in his love.

22nd– Give thanks to God and recommit yourself to his care and to listen to his voice as you serve him day by day.

23rd– Pray for those who are searching for meaning in their lives that they may taste and see that the Lord is good.

24th – Pray for those you care about and meet today that they may experience God’s presence in their lives.

25th– Pray for those in our communities who are struggling and in hardship, for the opportunities to reach out and help.

26th– Give thanks to God for all that he provides; and pray for the courage to trust him with all of your concerns.

27th– God’s love is unconditional, pray that all may feel the power of that amazing love given freely to those who seek him.

28th– Pray for the worldwide human family, so rich in diversity and culture that we, with God’s guidance, may love and serve each other.

29th– Give thanks to God this day for all the wonders of his amazing creation, and his great love for each and every one of us.

30th– Pray for God’s healing, his love, his peace to surround this earth and all people that we may serve each other in his name.
