Bishop of St Albans announcement:

The Diocese of St Albans is delighted to welcome the appointment of The Right Reverend Dr Andrew Paul Rumsey as the next Bishop of St Albans. The nomination, approved by His Majesty the King, was announced by 10 Downing Street on Thursday 19th March. Bishop Andrew is currently the Suffragan Bishop of Ramsbury in the Diocese of Salisbury. He returns to the diocese in which he was born and baptised, where his father served as a parish priest, and where he spent his early life. He described the announcement as "a homecoming" and said he was thrilled to be joining a "fine team" and humbled to follow "good and godly predecessors".

The link is to a short video released at the moment of the announcement, in which Bishop Andrew reflects on the significance of returning to the place that formed him and shares his hope that our churches, schools and chaplaincies will be places "where people of every background can truly belong".

More information on the announcement can also be found at :
