The Second Sunday of Lent

Sunday 1st March 2026

10am Sung Eucharist

Fr Tim Pilkington

Collect:

Almighty Father,

whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

A reading from the Book of Genesis

Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you.

I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you, and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing.

I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse; and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

So Abram went, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him.

A reading from the Second Letter of Paul to Timothy

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with the holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace.

This grace was given to us in Christ Jesus before the ages began, but it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who abolished death and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Gospel according to Matthew

Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became dazzling white.

Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him.

Then Peter said to Jesus, "Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will make three dwellings here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and from the cloud a voice said, "This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!"

When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

But Jesus came and touched them, saying, "Get up and do not be afraid."

And when they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, "Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead."

Post Communion Prayer

Holy God,

we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

We continue to pray for all people fleeing violence and oppression. For all exploited by people smugglers and for refugees across the world.

For those affected by natural disasters around the world. Help us to value the environment so that we can all work to reverse climate change and global warming.

In the diocese cycle of prayer: POVERTY SUNDAY

Jesus, friend of those in need,

We thank you for Your presence, for Your unfailing and unchanging love. Give us eyes to see and ears to hear people in our communities who are needing You and, by extension us, to step into areas of need and provide. Let us be quick to react and help and slow to judge and question. As we begin to see signs of the new life of spring, we pray that Your Spirit would grow shoots of compassion and action in our hearts for those around us which will grow into deep relationship with our communities and church families. Amen.

Prayers for the Second Sunday in Lent

Let us pray in obedience to God's holy law and in adoration to his glory revealed in his Son.

As we have received your commandments, given to your church a prophetic voice to declare them, that the glory of Christ may shine in all people...Give us the light that we cannot find without your guidance.

Look with pity on a world lacking direction and purpose...Lighten the nations with the vision of truth revealed of old in your holy mountain.

Grant to us, and to our families and friends, the desire to draw closer to Christ and to live our lives with him...Speak to us through the Holy Spirit as you spoke to the prophets and apostles.

Send the light of Christ into the darkness of those who are in need and distress at this time...Give them the assurance of salvation ... We pray for those suffering in mind, body or spirit, especially... Joan Wood, Pat Rogers, Lilian Hosking, Joan Whitford, Roderick & Jackie Dare, Billy Power and young Lilly.

We give thanks that the faithful departed are transfigured in the light of your love...Give us grace to live according to your commandments and to follow in their steps.

We remember especially:
Euphemia Bradbrooke & Shaun Thomas (1st March),

May these our prayers be found worthy in the light of Christ our guide in all our words and ways. Amen
