Methodist Minister's Reflection for March

As March arrives in our island, the days are finally stretching out, and that extra bit of light over the landscape is a very welcome sight. Even when the wind still has a bite, you can feel spring waiting in the wings.

For those living and working in the rural parishes, a few dry days are a godsend for muddy lanes and farm work. A quick glimpse of sunshine really can transform your whole week! There's something so reassuring about this steady turn of the seasons – a lovely reminder of the renewal woven into God's creation.

In the middle of these changing days, our church life keeps up its quiet rhythm of prayer. As the mornings brighten, we hope your spirits do too. You're always warmly welcome at any of our services or gatherings.

Every blessing,

Howard Stringer
