Mothers' UNION

On Friday 20th March, a celebration and thanksgiving service for 150 years of the Mothers' Union was held in Exeter Cathedral. The Axminster MU banner was carried by Mary Harrison, current Branch Leader, along with nearly 40 other banners from branches past and present. Our welcome to the Cathedral and the blessing at the closing was carried out by the Revd. Cate Edmonds, in her role as Canon Steward (Cate is also an MU member). The service was not only a celebration of the past, but looked at what Mothers' Union still does now including work in prisons, parenting groups, campaigns against sexual violence and being concerned with all issues to do with families locally, nationally and worldwide. Most importantly, all of this is rooted in prayer. Our Axminster branch meets generally on the first Tuesday of the month at 2.30pm in the Church rooms and everyone is welcome to come along. You can also contact Mary Harrison - marylizh13@gmail.com. for more information.
