A reading from the Acts of the Apostles 10.34-43

So Peter opened his mouth and said: “Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all), you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all that he did both in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree, but God raised him on the third day and caused him to appear, not to all the people but to us who had been chosen by God as witnesses, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one appointed by God to be judge of the living and the dead. To him all the prophets bear witness that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.”

v. 1 O give thanks to the Lord for he is good.

Verse

C.M.

- 1 O give thanks to the Lord, for he is good;
his mercy en | dures for ever.
2 Let Israel now proclaim,
'His mercy en | dures for ever.'
3 Let the house of Aaron now proclaim,
'His mercy en | dures for ever.'
4 Let those who fear the Lord proclaim,
'His mercy en | dures for ever.'
- 2 In my constraint I called to the Lord;
the Lord answered and | set me free.
3 The Lord is at my side; I will not fear;
what | can flesh do to me?
4 With the Lord at my side | as my saviour,
I shall see the downfall | of my enemies.
- 3 It is better to take refuge | in the Lord
than to put any confi | dence in flesh.
4 It is better to take refuge | in the Lord
than to put any confi | dence in princes.

A reading from the Epistle of St.Paul the Apostle to the
Colossians 3.1-4

If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Hear the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to St.Matthew 28.1-10

Now after the Sabbath, towards the dawn of the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And behold, there was a great earthquake, for an angel of the Lord descended from heaven and came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. And for fear of him the guards trembled and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for he has risen, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples that he has risen from the dead, and behold, he is going before you to Galilee; there you will see him. See, I have told you." So they departed quickly from the tomb with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. And behold, Jesus met them and said, "Greetings!" And they came up and took hold of his feet and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, "Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee, and there they will see me."
