Vocations Day - the Diocese is holding a Vocations Day for anyone wondering whether God is calling them to ordained ministry in the Church of England. It is open to anyone from those who have been considering such a step for a long time or whether they just want to find out more. It is at 10am on Saturday 25th April until 3pm in Horsham. A poster gives details in church.

Church Ramble - Our next church ramble is on Sat 25th April meeting at Alfriston church at 10am to walk to the Cuckmere Inn for coffee and then back along the river. Peter and Jackie Funnell

We have a new Authorised Lay Minister (nearly!). I am delighted to announce that Val Moore has completed her training with the diocese as an Authorised Lay Minister (ALM) with a particular focus on pastoral ministry. Val will be commissioned by +Martin, Bishop of Chichester, at Chichester Cathedral at 11am Saturday 9th May. All are welcome to attend and support Val and many others as they begin this important work. As an ALM Val will be joining the Ministry Team which at present consists of myself and the Rev'd Elly. Fr Jeremy

A Big Thank You - to all those who helped make the church look so lovely over all the Easter activities, as well as helping with all the Easter services. It's a reminder that all these people who decorate, help with and generally look after, are all volunteers. If you are interested in helping with the flowers, sides persons, sound, coffee rota or even knowing more about the activity please ask a Churchwarden
