The Annual Meeting of Parishioners and Annual Parochial Church Meetings (APCM) will be taking place as follows:

Annesley with Newstead Thursday 9th April 7.30pm All Saints Hall

St John Kirkby Woodhouse Wednesday 15th April 7.00pm St John's Church

The Annual Meeting of Parishioners is for the election of church wardens. Church wardens are elected each year and each church can have 2 wardens.

The Annual Parochial Church Meeting receives reports from various bodies and groups within the church to give an overview of each church and its mission and ministry. It is open to anyone who is on the church electoral roll. If you are not on the electoral roll and would like to be added to it there is information on each church notice board entitled Revision of the Church Electoral Roll. The electoral roll officer for Annesley with Newstead is Graham Leaver and for St John's it is Daphne Cantrill. The APCM is also responsible for electing the members of each Parochial Church Council (PCC) and Deanery Synod Representatives who each serve a three year term.

If you have any questions or are interested in becoming a Church Warden, PCC member or Deanery Synod Representative please speak with Hazel or Charlotte.

God of glory, by the raising of your Son you have broken the chains of death and hell: fill your Church with faith and hope; for a new day has dawned and the way to life stands open in our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

First Reading

ACTS 10.34-43

Peter began to speak to those assembled in the house of Cornelius: 'I truly understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. You know the message he sent to the people of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ – he is Lord of all. That message spread throughout Judea, beginning in Galilee after the baptism that John announced: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power; how he went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him. We are witnesses to all that he did both in Judea and in Jerusalem. They put him to death by hanging him on a tree; but God raised him on the third day and allowed him to appear, not to all the people but to us who were chosen by God as witnesses, and who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. He commanded us to preach to the people and to testify that he is the one ordained by God as judge of the living and the dead. All the prophets testify about him that everyone who believes in him receives forgiveness of sins through his name.'

Gospel Reading

MATTHEW 28.1-10

After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning, Mary Magdalene and the other Mary went to see the tomb. And suddenly there was a great earthquake; for an angel of the Lord, descending from heaven, came and rolled back the stone and sat on it. His appearance was like lightning, and his clothing white as snow. For fear of him the guards shook and became like dead men. But the angel said to the women, 'Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said. Come, see the place where he lay. Then go quickly and tell his disciples, "He has been raised from the dead, and indeed he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him." This is my message for you.' So they left the tomb quickly with fear and great joy, and ran to tell his disciples. Suddenly Jesus met them and said, 'Greetings!' And they came to him, took hold of his feet, and worshipped him. Then Jesus said to them, 'Do not be afraid; go and tell my brothers to go to Galilee; there they will see me.'
