From Jane Skinner

So here it is, the moment we can sing/shout/proclaim "Alleluia, Christ is risen! He is risen indeed, Alleluia!! That for me is the main fast of Lent, not saying "Alleluia" for a whole 40 days! After 3 days of emptiness, the resurrection of Jesus. Be sure we are claiming that this is bodily, not resuscitation or spiritual but actual God raised Jesus from the dead. The final enemy, death, will be overcome for us all - both 'in Christ' (first fruits) and the entire cosmos (1 Corinthians 15). We proclaim a glorious victory that puts all today's world news in the shade - be of good cheer. Happy Easter everyone: Alleluia! Jane

ECO CHURCH (an A ROCHA UK project)

Jane is keen for every parish to become involved and take the first steps towards winning awards. To this end, she has organised a short session at All Hallows Woolsery on Saturday April 25th from 10.30am to demonstrate how to create an account for your church and access the forms which need completing for each stage. Once registered (Buckland Brewer, Hartland, Welcombe and Woolsery already are) it is easy for others to register and link in to their own parish – so the responsibility can be shared! A copy of the guide is attached to the email with this sheet.
