Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

Weekly Pew Sheet for the benefice of Newport and Carisbrooke with Gatcombe
To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

To know Jesus and to make him known

Welcome to our benefice! If you are visiting one of our churches for the first time, please introduce yourself to us!

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Verse for the week

“The sheep follow Him because they know his voice”

John 10: 3b

Thought for the week

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Dear Friends,

This week Jesus reminds us that the sheep recognise the voice of their shepherd because they have spent time learning what it sounds like. Our lives are filled with so many voices, opinions, pressures, and expectations that it can be hard to hear God’s voice of love and peace in the midst of it all. Like the sheep, we can learn to recognise God’s voice by spending time in prayer and reading the Bible. This week, I encourage you to pause, make space to listen, and trust that over time you will learn to hear His voice above all the others.

Revd Abbie

Collect; Risen Christ, faithful shepherd of your Father's sheep: teach us to hear your voice and to follow your command, that all your people may be gathered into one flock, to the glory of God the Father. Amen.

FIRST READING; Acts 2: 42-end

They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Awe came upon everyone because many wonders and signs were being done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

This is the word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

GOSPEL READING; John 10: 1-10

Hear the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John

Glory to you, O Lord

“Very truly, I tell you, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold by the gate but climbs in by another way is a thief and a bandit. The one who enters by the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice. They will not follow a stranger, but they will run from him because they do not know the voice of strangers.” Jesus used this figure of speech with them, but they did not understand what he was saying to them.

So again Jesus said to them, “Very truly, I tell you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and bandits, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters by me will be saved and will come in and go out and find pasture. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.”

This is the Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, O Christ

Post communion prayer; Merciful Father, you gave your Son Jesus Christ to be the good shepherd, and in his love for us to lay down his life and rise again: keep us always under his protection, and give us grace to follow in his steps; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
