We give heartfelt thanks to our outgoing PCC for all that they have done in serving and supporting the life of our church. Through their care, wisdom, prayer, and commitment, they have helped to guide us faithfully and to steward the governance of our church with generosity and dedication. To those members who are not standing again next year, please accept our sincere gratitude for the time, energy, and love you have given. Your service has been deeply valued, and we thank you for all you have contributed to our church family. We also offer a warm welcome and sincere thanks to the new members of our PCC.
