The Vicar Writes...

On Sunday 31st May we will be holding our Annual Parochial Church Council meeting at St Nicholas' Church following the 10.30am joint benefice service and to which all who are on the roll of the parish are warmly invited to attend.

Reflecting on the past year across the joint benefice of Fulford-in-Stone with Hilderstone, I give thanks for God's continuing faithfulness and for the dedication of so many within our churches and communities. It has been a year of joyful celebration alongside the steady rhythm of parish life and ministry.

A particular highlight was the 200th anniversary of St Nicholas', marked by a wonderful flower festival and special service led by Bishop Jan, Dean of Lichfield. Thanks are due to everyone who contributed displays, refreshments and hospitality, helping to raise over £1,300 towards the church's upkeep.

Our church community has also shared in weddings, confirmations and times of loss, supporting one another through all seasons of life. New initiatives such as the monthly 'Coffee and Natter' morning continue to strengthen community connections.

Rural ministry is often expressed not in grand gestures, but in presence, perseverance and pastoral care. It is a privilege to serve among you, and I look ahead with hope, trusting in God's continued guidance and provision.

Revd Lucinda
