

Taverham Fair as in recent years we will be joining in with the Churches Together stall at Taverham Fair on 27th June. If you are able to come and help set up the tent, or to be present at the fair for an hour during the day, please tell Rev Paul

Sad news we were very sorry to hear that Roger Morriss has died. Roger and Valerie were regular attenders of the 8.00am service. Our prayers are with Valerie and the family at this sad time.

Friend in deed – Big Day of Kindness next Sunday (7th) the charity that has been connecting older people in Care Homes with children is running a free fun day. Posters with more details are on the noticeboards. Everyone is welcome!

Cursillo Are you interested in Cursillo? A Christian discipleship weekend held in September? Details : Rev Stella 07815 089704

PCC meeting for St Ed's will be on Monday 8th June at 7.30pm at St Ed's

The driveway is finished! Many thanks to Deeba's who worked incredibly hard in the hot weather. It needs to remain closed to allow the surface to settle.

Charitable giving Please let Rev Paul have any suggestions of charities.

If you are new.... It is great to see you today. If you are able to, please speak to a member of the ministry team. We look forward to getting to know you!

Welcome to St Edmund's Church Taverham and St Peter's Ringland

31st May 2026

Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age." Matthew 28 : 19 - 20

Prayer for this week

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity:
keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

Holy God,
faithful and unchanging:
enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth,
and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Readings this week

Isaiah 40 : 12 – 17, 27 - end 2 Corinthians 13 : 11 - end Matthew 28 : 16 - 20

We give thanks for.....

Deidre Porter who has come forward as Safeguarding Officer for the next year

For all who came to our plant sale and craft and arts display last week

Thought for this week

Sometimes we have to go to a higher place to get a better view. For a more embracing perspective. A clearer view away from the distractions of everyday.
To focus on the way ahead. Jesus takes His disciples to a high place at the end of Matthew's Gospel, and in just a few words brings His earthly ministry together, connecting it with His heavenly mission, and involving His disciples in all He has achieved, and in the new age that has begun.

This is exciting! And it involves each one of us. The disciples were still a mixed bunch. The Gospel tells us some praised Jesus, 'but some doubted'. But Jesus sends them anyway! By living out the Gospel, sharing the love and compassion of Jesus, learning to trust in the power of the Holy Spirit, discovering more and more of the love of the Father, we grow in our faith.

Jesus gathers us all together, diverse as we are, and tells us to go out into the world. Into His world. To His people.
Whoever crosses our path this week, whatever words are spoken or unspoken. Whatever relationships need to be mended, each day is an opportunity and a gift. Let us ask Jesus to help us in His mission, to live out the reality of His love, and His call to everyone to believe and trust in Him Paul
